TO DIFFER FROM MELLON PLAN

Democrats Will Foster a Tax Reduction Bill.

VIEWS MUST BE HARMONIZED

This Will Be Problem For the Congressional Managers on Both Sides. Democrats Also to Stand For Wholesale Reduction in Appropriations—Would Restore Excess Profits Tax.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Tax reduction sentiment in congress has reached the point where the only question at issue involves the specific levies that shall be dealt with and the extent to which reductions shall be made.

One development was a definite announcement that the Democrats will favor sweeping reductions not only in taxes, but in appropriations as well.

The announcement was made by Senator William H. King of Utah after an extended conference with Cordell H. Hull, chairman of the Democratic national committee, and other Democratic leaders.

Senator King emphasized that there will be no nonpartisan coalition with the Republicans, as suggested by Republican leaders. The Democrats, he declared, will introduce their own bill. It will differ in some respects from the Mellon program and follow it in others. The problem then for the congressional managers on both sides will be to harmonize the divergent views in a satisfactory composite bill.

Senator King said the Democrats will fight for wholesale reduction in appropriations, so as to make possible tax cuts beyond those suggested by Mr. Mellon. Instead of providing for governmental expenditures aggregating $3,000,000,000 for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1924, as proposed in the recently completed budget, it is his opinion that not more than $2,500,000,000 will be necessary. Of this total $1,000,000,000 would suffice for ordinary expenses of the government, the Utah senator asserted. The second $1,000,000,000 would cover interest and sinking fund charges on the national debt. The remaining $500,000,000 should amply take care of the needs of the disabled ex-service men.

King said the Democrats agreed with Mr. Mellon and the Republican leaders that as much as possible of the burden on the poor should be removed and virtually all excise and so-called nuisance taxes ought to be eliminated. But, the senator said, it was not thought that as much of the surtaxes should be taken off the higher incomes as the treasury chief proposes. In addition, he favored restoration of the excess profits tax and increase of the inheritance tax.

WOULD ACCEPT FORD OFFER

Bernard Baruch Favors Development of Muscle Shoals.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Interest in Henry Ford's offer to take over and develop the nitrate manufacturing plant at Muscle Shoals was revived by Senator Ladd of North Dakota, who made public a letter from Bernard M. Baruch, urging acceptance by the government of the Ford offer.

In his letter, which was written Nov. 3, Mr. Baruch said: "To my mind that is the only possible basis for solving this case. If Mr. Ford is willing to put his reputation as a great industrialist behind this development, the government, rather than let this plant lie idle, could afford to make almost any contract with him, provided the work is undertaken now. We ought to make some practical and immediate use of the huge sums of money that it was necessary to spend for war purposes, but which could now be put to the constructive uses of peace."

Liquor Cargo Landed.

Highlands, N. C., Nov. 22.—Rum runners took more than 20 loads from five liquor carriers about 10 miles off the Highlands in the first extensive smuggling operation attempted in months. With the exception of one load, which was dumped into the sea when Warrant Officer Tilton of the Sandy Hook coast guards gave chase, all the liquor was reported safely ashore. At least half of it is believed to have been landed by runners from this vicinity.

Miss Hildreth Schulte shot and killed Carl Potters and then committed suicide at Meek, Tex., as the result of a lover's quarrel.

C. D. MORRIS

Secretary of Near East Relief Commission to Greece.

IN SECOND DEGREE

Slayer of Tenewalde Family Found Guilty of Murder.

Ottawa, O., Nov. 22.—Charles Shank, Putnam county, farmhand, was found guilty of the second degree murder of Mrs. William Tenewalde of near Kalida, this county. The state had demanded the death penalty. The jury deliberated 25 hours.

Shank also is under indictment for the slaying of Olive Tenewalde, the unwed mother of his child and a daughter of Mrs. Tenewalde, and Lawrence Tenewalde, a nephew. Shank admitted the triple slaying at the Tenewalde farm three months ago, but at his trial declared he committed the deeds because the Tenewalde family had separated him and Olive and had taken their babe from them. He also alleged self-defense. He had gone to the Tenewalde farm the day of the shooting to take Olive to a picnic. In the kitchen of the Tenewalde home, he charged, Mrs. Tenewalde and Lawrence made as though to attack him.

The state has not disclosed if Shank will be prosecuted on charges of slaying Olive and Lawrence Tenewalde.

Packers to Resist.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—A court fight to test the authority of government auditors to have full access to books of packing companies is indicated by the statement of L. F. Swift, president of Swift & Company, that his concern will resist the attempt of the secretary of agriculture to investigate company affairs. "Such attempted regulation of the entire business can but result in conflict of regulation and the confusion of the industry," Mr. Swift said. "It will probably be necessary to let the courts decide this issue."

MAGNUS JOHNSON SPEAKS

Promotion of World Peace the Biggest Issue, He Says.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Labor champion from Minnesota, arrived here to take up his senatorial duties. After establishing himself in the senate office building he left with Mrs. Johnson to look at houses in Takoma Park, Md., about seven miles from the capital. Johnson said he would affiliate with the LaFollette progressive bloc. His plans regarding legislation and organization of the senate, however, have not matured. He will confer with his colleagues in the "progressive group" immediately. The biggest issue now before the country, he said, is what this government can and should do to promote world peace. He made it plain very quickly, however, that he did not mean that the United States should involve itself in European entanglements and that he did not support France's present course. "I am not for the league of nations," Johnson stated. "I am not for the world court either."

Charged With Bigamy.

Columbus, Nov. 22.—Mrs. Flora Brown, 30, is held here on a charge of bigamy, as the result of an affidavit filed by John A. Brown of Chicago, who alleges that she is married to a man in Columbus by the name of Claud Sessell. On Feb. 2, 1923, Brown alleges, he married the woman in Chicago. Since that time she left him, he charges. On Oct. 8 Mrs. Brown married Claud Sessell here in Columbus, and was living with him at the time of her arrest, police say.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio—Friday: Cloudy.

ARRESTS LIKELY TO BE ORDERED

Prosecutions Loom as a Result of Veterans' Bureau Inquiry.

DAUGHERTY ADVISED TO ACT

Proceedings Against Persons Named in Bribery, Graft and Conspiracy Charges Before the Senate Committee to Be Begun Soon, It Is Said. Part of Mrs. Mortimer's Secret Testimony Revealed.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Criminal action against persons named in bribery, graft and conspiracy charges before the senate veterans' bureau investigating committee will be begun at once by the department of justice, it was authoritatively learned.

Examination of the committee's evidence, it was stated, has convinced the department that the matter is now one for the courts. Prosecuting officers have advised Attorney General Daugherty that arrests be ordered immediately, based on the charges before the subcommittee, to be followed instead of preceded by grand jury action.

Mrs. Katherine Tullidge Mortimer, wife of Elias H. Mortimer, Forbes' chief accuser, has charged that her husband frequently beat and otherwise mistreated her, it was revealed here.

Mrs. Mortimer is also alleged to have accused her husband of repeated drunkenness and other conduct embarrassing to her. She emphatically denied any improper conduct at any time between her and Forbes or that there was anything in their relations and friendship that could be open to criticism. These accusations and denials are contained in the sworn statement by Mrs. Mortimer when she was secretly examined by the committee two weeks ago.

Mortimer declared at his last appearance before the committee that the compelling motive that prompted him to make his accusations of bribery, graft, conspiracy, etc., against Forbes and others was because he had failed in "keeping her (Mrs. Mortimer) away from that fellow, Forbes, and his tool, Sidney Bieber."

The committee agreed to release such portions of it as were considered relevant for the record.

AMBASSADORS SEND NOTE TO BERLIN

Germany Must Submit to Allied Military Control.

Paris, Nov. 22.—With France reserving the right to impose penalties on Germany without consulting her allies, the council of ambassadors framed a note to the Berlin government demanding that Germany submit to the immediate resumption of allied military control and insure the allies against any political upheaval as a result of the return to Germany of the former crown prince.

Premier Baldwin and Lord Curzon sent instructions which enabled the council to arrive at an understanding, avoiding a definite break between England and France.

The note, which will be forwarded to Berlin at once, demands that the allied military control of Germany must begin to function at once. While the note will state that while the fact is recognized that Crown Prince Wilhelm has renounced his right to the throne and agreed not to take part in politics in Germany, the reich will be held responsible by the allies for preventing any action tending to restore the throne to the prince and also to prevent any possibility of the return of the former kaiser. It will declare that if Germany does not obey the injunctions in the note the allies will consider levying other penalties than have heretofore been imposed.

Protests His Innocence.

Mexico City, Nov. 22.—Mexican government secret service men took into custody Count Alfonso De Vour, alias Abraham Houston, on a charge of passing counterfeit money. The prisoner of many aliases declares he is a member of the French nobility and staunchly protests his innocence despite the circulars sent out from the United States and Guatemala seeking his apprehension.

REV. F. A. TONDORF

Seismologist of Georgetown University at Washington.

DOINGS IN OHIO

Tattooer Convicted.

Cleveland, Nov. 22.—James E. Wild was given an indeterminate sentence in the Ohio state reformatory by Judge Clegg following his conviction on a charge of stabbing to wound in the tattooing of his name on the body of Miss Marie Sanko, his ex-sweetheart. Sentence was suspended pending a ruling on a motion for a new trial by Nathan E. Cook, Wild's attorney.

Locher to Attend.

Columbus, Nov. 22.—Commerce Director Locher will represent Ohio at the conference called by Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania to consider a program of national legislation to reduce the price of anthracite coal. It was announced by Governor Donahy. The conference is at Harrisburg, Pa., the afternoon of Nov. 26.

Boys Admit Burglaries.

Akron, O., Nov. 22.—Following their arrest 13 boys, ranging in age from 11 to 17 years, are said to have confessed to 15 burglaries and the theft of five automobiles. Four groceries, two restaurants, a butcher shop and a barber shop are included in the list of robberies charged against five of the lads.

Ruling On Home-Made Wine.

Lima, O., Nov. 22.—Makers of wine at home for use in the home by members of the family, none being given away or sold, can not be prosecuted under the Crabbie act, even though the liquor should prove to be intoxicating, Probate Judge J. H. Hamilton ruled in a decision here.

Dog Rouses Family.

Marietta, O., Nov. 22.—Barking of a dog probably saved the lives of eight members of Gus Henderham's family when fire destroyed their farm home east of this city. One entire portion of the home was enveloped in flames when the barking of the animal aroused the family.

Hold-Up Frustrated.

Akron, O., Nov. 22.—Ben Browdie, a butcher here, frustrated an attempted holdup when, armed with a heavy cleaver, he struck a gunman over the head and chased both stickup artists down the street. They had ordered him to turn over the contents of the cash register.

Collision Proves Fatal.

Eaton, O., Nov. 22.—After conversing with physicians for 30 minutes after his automobile was wrecked by a railroad train here, Ora Flora, 39, prominent farmer of this city, died. Death was due to shock, the physicians said, as he had sustained no broken bones or visible injuries.

To Shut Down One Day a Week.

Columbus, Nov. 22.—Four thousand employees of the Columbus shops of the Pennsylvania railroad are idle today as a result of the railroad's new plan of shutting down one day a week to reduce expenses. The new policy is expected to be in effect for the remainder of the year.

Beer Shipment Seized.

Bowling Green, O., Nov. 22.—Nimrod Ashcraft of Covington, Ky., was arrested near here by Officers Alkire and Gallier, who said they found 65 cases of beer in the truck he was driving labeled "nine per cent."

Call for a national convention of the United Mine Workers of America in Indianapolis on Jan. 22 will be made soon, John L. Lewis, president of the miners' organization announced.

WORLD COURT UP TO SENATE

Coolidge May Not Make Direct Appeal for Ratification.

NOW UNDER STRONG PRESSURE

President's Message Likely to Make Mere Reference to the Fact That the Court Proposal Had Been Submitted by President Harding and That the Senate Should Make Some Disposition of It.

Washington, Nov. 22.—President Coolidge is expected to avoid making a direct appeal for ratification of the world court proposal in his message to congress.

It was authoritatively learned that the message will contain a mere reference to the fact that the world court proposal was submitted by President Harding and is still in the hands of the foreign relations committee, which should make some disposition of it. Beyond this, it is stated, the message will sidestep any recommendation as to whether or not the proposition should be ratified.

Strong pressure is being brought to bear upon the president to force him to depart from this position and come out in the open as a firm supporter of the world court. The chief instrument in this pressure is, of course, Secretary Hughes, with the assistance of Secretary Hoover. Pressure upon the president also is being exerted by the federal council of churches.

In opposition to the endeavors to have President Coolidge support the world court in a vigorous message there are others who are busily advising him for political reasons to evade the issue by making no recommendation at all, leaving it entirely in the hands of the senate to dispose of as it sees fit.

The difficulty in this position lies in the fact that such action by the president would not only offend supporters of the world court, who are demanding something more than a half-hearted reference to it in the message, but would also be displeasing to the reconciliators, who will demand to know what the president is for or against it.

The attitude of Senator Hiram Johnson, for example, is that the people who are to vote for the next president have the right to know whether President Coolidge is for the court or favors keeping the United States entirely out of Europe. Johnson will make the court proposal an issue, no matter what way the president disposes of it in his message.

DUTY TO CHILDREN

Governor Donahy Issues Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Columbus, Nov. 22.—Governor Donahy issued a proclamation designating Thursday, Nov. 29, as Thanksgiving day. He said:

"In harmony with national tradition, a day during each year of our statehood has been devoted to joy and thankfulness, always with a quickening of the conscience and the glorification of the happy and righteous life. Let us make it a great day for the children, and especially on that day let us weigh our duty to the orphaned children. Men and women who do not hear the voices of little ones of their own, should share their material means by inviting to dinner the orphaned, homeless or poor. It would be a fine thing if childless families would on this Thanksgiving day resolve to adopt or insure the education and training of some child whose parents are helpless or in the grave, thereby sanctifying their own lives and rendering worthy thanks for divine favor."

Co-operation Urged.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 22.—Gifford Pinchot, governor of Pennsylvania, declared that the farmers to be prosperous must co-operate in marketing, buying and storage and must make the lakes-to-the-gulf deep waterway project a reality. Pinchot in his address before the national convention of the Farmers' Union said that both an internal network of waterways and co-operative marketing were the two things which would produce "better markets" for agricultural products.

Zeigler Arrested.

Berlin, Nov. 22.—Former Premier Zeigler, head of the Socialist-Communist government of Saxony, who was removed from office by force of arms by the reichswehr, was arrested at his home at Dresden on a charge of selling pardons.

COOK CONVICTED

Charged With Thirteen Others of Using the Mails to Defraud.

Ft. Worth, Tex., Nov. 22.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook and 13 associates were found guilty in the federal court here of using the mails to defraud in connection with the sale of oil stock. Cook and 12 others were found guilty on all 12 counts. S. E. J. Cox, Houston promoter, was found guilty on eight counts.

Defendants found guilty with Cook are: Seymour E. J. Cox, T. O. Turner, L. A. McKercher, Arthur Eckman, W. P. Welty, Fred K. Smith, B. S. Henninger, R. L. Maxwell, W. L. Bradish, E. J. Bowen, S. L. Hess, C. W. Slets, J. S. Rocks.

The charges against Cook and his assistants were based mainly on promotion of the Petroleum Producers' association, of which Cook was "president and sole trustee." The evidence involved several other promotions. Receipts were reported to have been heavy.

Dr. Cook was sentenced to 14 years and nine months in prison and fined $12,000.

Charge Against Doctor.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 22.—The special grand jury investigating the operations of quack doctors in Connecticut instructed State's Attorney Alcorn to place a charge of manslaughter against Dr. George Maud Sutcliffe, in connection with the death of Albert M. Hoody, who occupied Sutcliffe's operating table at Unionville. According to information said to have been placed before the inquisitors, Hoody was one of seven patients who died while under Sutcliffe's ministrations within a year. Officials have been dispatched to Albany with instructions to locate Sutcliffe.

BRITISH SET A PRICE

Twelve-Mile Treaty Text Expected Within a Day or Two.

Washington, Nov. 22.—State department officials expect to receive the twelve-mile treaty text from London within a day or two, it was indicated here. Intimations have been received from London that it will grant Mr. Hughes everything he asks in the way of search and seizure rights, but with a price. Lord Curzon is said to have interwoven into the treaty text a sweeping assertion that both nations recognize the three-mile limit as a principle of international law and are making a specific exception to it in this one instance. The effect of such a declaration, officials fear, might be to bind this government to the British viewpoint in the controversy between London and Moscow over Russian fishing rights beyond the three-mile limit.

Dead at 103.

Youngstown, O., Nov. 22.—Mrs. Rachel Jackson, 103, is dead at the home of her son here.

"Paradise Regained" on Cabbage.
It is said that John Milton often used to have nothing but a few olives for dinner, and we do not wonder so much since learning this that he so seldom wrote anything cheerful. We do not think we could write anything cheerful, ourselves, after dining on a few olives, though we have done it not infrequently on boiled cabbage and prune whip.—Ohio State Journal.

The spouts of china teapots become very much discolored in time. A wing feather of a chicken or turkey makes a good brush to remove them. When well soaped and drawn in and out of the spout it cleans it nicely.

LEGAL NOTICE

Public notice is hereby given that The Pickaway Water company has filed with The Public Utilities commission of Ohio an amendment to its schedule P. U. C. O. No. 2, specifying increased rates for water service at Circleville, Ohio, to become effective December 8, 1923, such proposed increased rates being as follows:

Flat Rates.
For water furnished by flat rate charge the rates shall be as follows:
For dwelling house not exceeding six rooms $ 8 00
For each additional room 1 00
For bath tub 3 00
For water closet in dwelling, per bowl 2 00
For each additional faucet (excepting hot water faucets) ... 1 00
No charge additional for hot water faucets
For private garage or private stable 1 00
For lawn, garden and street sprinkling by hose, including washing and sprinkling sidewalks 50 feet front or less, including necessary faucets, therefor 5 00
For each additional foot frontage 10
For building purposes, frame dwelling, per room 75
For building purposes, concrete, stone or brick dwelling, per room 1 50
For other building, shall be meter rates for water consumed.

Said rates shall be due and payable quarterly and if not paid within ten days after the end of the quarter, the company may add 5% of the amount thereof.

All users of water by metered or measured service shall pay at the following rates:

Minimum Charge.
For the first 2000 gallons of water or fraction thereof per quarter sold thru each meter the company may charge for at not to exceed the rate of $7.60 per year payable quarterly for which the consumer shall be entitled to 2000 gallons per quarter without further charge.

Meter Rates.
For water furnished by meter measurements, at not to exceed the following rates:
For the next 2500 gallons or less per day at the rate of 42c per 1000 gallons.
For the next 3500 gallons or portions thereof per day at 20c per 1000 gallons. All over said amounts at the rate of 10c per 1000 gallons.

The foregoing water charges by meter measurements shall be payable quarterly at the end of each quarter at the office of the company, in the city of Circleville, Ohio. But bills may be rendered monthly where the consumption is in excess of 10,000 gallons per month.

Where water charges are payable quarterly, the quarters shall begin on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year and when payable monthly the month shall begin on the first thereof.

In case said charges for water are not paid within ten days after the end of the month or quarter during which the water was furnished to the consumer, the company may add 5% of the amount thereof.

A copy of the proposed schedule may be inspected by any interested party at the office of Roy E. Davis, superintendent, at the company's office in the city of Circleville, Ohio.

Hawks Not All Enemies.
The department of agriculture says that of the 50 principal varieties of hawks 47 are of benefit to the farmer since they catch great numbers of rodents that injure crops. Hotel Stenographer
BY ROE FULKERSON

"Kelly, who was this Venus woman whose arms were broken off grabbing at the sheet that was slipping off her?" asked the Hotel Stenographer.

"You can search me," said the House Detective.

"I read she was supposed to be a perfect woman.

"She might be perfect for a kitchen mechanic, but, take it from me, she would sit out a lot of dances these days.

"Too big!
"I measure 12½ inches around the neck, 36 around the bust, 25 around the waist, with no pullings, 36 around the hips and 8½ around the ankles. When I put on a bathing suit and walk down the beach nobody turns a head away because I am hard to look at.

"Setting a standard for what is a beautiful woman is a joke. Nobody can make me think any man ever married a woman he thought homely. To him she is good looking. Beauty is in the eye of the beholder, not in the object beheld.

"The long, slim ones, the short, fat ones, the blondes, the brunettes, the red heads, the dark, the fair, the sleepy and the snappy ones get hooked up for life every day. Ninety-nine out of a hundred of them would run a bad last in a beauty contest.
"I am not hard to look at, Kelly, but it would make no difference if I was. Few men have studied art, and few know the shape of these women who posed for the old masters to sculpt. This Venus woman was a bear when it comes to arranging her hair, but she was too big to pet, and, Kelly men certainly do like to pet 'em."

Balanced Ration
Needed for Eggs

Profitable Returns From Laying Hens Are Largely Due to Good Feed.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Good egg production and profitable returns from laying hens are largely the result of properly balanced rations composed of wholesome feeds. Experiments in poultry feeding for egg production carried on by the United States Department of Agriculture show that it takes about 6.7 pounds of feed to produce a dozen eggs with general-purpose pullets while the egg-laying strains, such as Leghorns, require about 4.8 pounds of feed. Old hens require a much larger amount of feed in producing a dozen eggs.

Results From Simple Mixture.

Simple mixtures composed of home-grown grains and their by-products, supplemented with meat or fish scrap or milk, give the most profitable results. A good scratch mixture is one made of two parts cracked corn and one part oats, while a mash of three parts cornmeal and one part meat scrap will be found very satisfactory. A fair amount of green feed with these rations should give good results with the flock, since the mash and scratch mixtures suggested combine the animal-protein feed, bulk, and fat required by a good balanced poultry ration.

The rations may be varied to include feeds that are easily obtained, and that are comparatively inexpensive. Corn, wheat, oats and barley are the principal grains fed to poultry. Kafir corn and buckwheat are used also, but are not so generally available and cost more. Corn and wheat are the two best grains and are about equal in value as poultry feeds, although wheat can be fed alone better than corn, which is inclined to be fattening. Oats and barley, on account of their hulls and higher fiber content, are not so good as wheat or corn. Rye is not well relished by fowls and is seldom fed. Wheat screenings or slightly damaged grains may sometimes be bought to advantage, their value depending entirely upon their quality and condition, but as a rule it is good policy to stick to sound grains in good condition.

Mash Made of Ground Grains.

A mash made of ground grains, mill products, and meat scrap may use cornmeal, wheat bran, wheat middlings, or corn chop, corn-and-cob meal, or ground oats, depending upon the feeds available and the relative cost of each. It is worth remembering, however, that just as good results can be obtained with a simple mash containing three or four ground grains and meat scrap as from a highly complicated mash containing ten or twelve products.

Insects Attack Apples
While Held in Storage

With more attention being paid to the grading of apples, anything which contributes to the deterioration of the fruit after packing or in storage will be of considerable interest to fruit growers. Observations made at Geneva and elsewhere show that late summer insects sometimes escape the notice of the packer and are put in storage, where later they may develop and do much damage to the fruit.

The larvae, or worm form of leaf-rollers, bud moth and case-bearers have been found feeding on apples piled in the orchard, while codling-moth larvae, the lesser apple worm, San Jose scale and apple maggots are known to have continued their feeding and development in supposedly sound fruit which had been placed in storage. Fortunately the codling moth and apple maggot confine their efforts to a single infested fruit, but the apple worm and San Jose scale may pass from apple to apple.

If the fruit can be placed in cold storage and held at just above freezing point until ready for use, little if any injury will result from insects inadvertently carried over with the apples. Although the larvae may not be killed, the low temperature will effectively check their growth. However, infested apples never keep quite so well in storage as do sound apples.

Exhaust of Automobile
Is Sure Death to Lice

Most every farmer has a car of some kind; and most every farmer has chickens, and therefore is troubled with vermin in the chicken house at some time. Well, here is the connection. It is new and reliable.

Just attach a rubber hose to the exhaust pipe of your motor and put the other end in the chicken house—with the chickens all out, of course. Close the house as tightly as you can, let the motor run about ten minutes, and bingo! Bugs, lice, mites and other vermin are gone. It is the cheapest lice killer known.

Scheme for Getting Rid
of Wild Onion or Garlic

Late fall plowing, followed by an infertile crop the following year, will get rid of wild onion, or garlic. Corn in check-rows is a good crop to plant. To get rid of the onions in pasture, if the plants are too numerous, dig each plant and destroy it. Sheep eat the tops of the onion, and grazing for a few years often kills it out. Coal-tar kerosene oil applied to each plant at the rate of about four thumbfuls is effective in killing both the plant and the ungerminated bulbs.

AMUSEMENTS

The Paramount picturization of Joseph Hocking's novel, "Prodigal Daughters" scored an artistic triumph at its opening showing at the Metropolitan theater last evening.

Gloria Swanson is in the stellar role with Ralph Graves playing opposite. How the unshackled girl of today, is unwittingly treading the downward path is the theme of the production. As "Swiftie" Forbes, the daughter of a financier, Miss Swanson resents being continuously under the censure of her father and breaks loose to make her own living. But all is not as she expected, and before long she returns to the parental roof, repentant and thoroughly cured.

"Prodigal Daughters" presents Gloria Swanson at her best. In no previous production has she been quite so vivacious and charming. Ralph Graves, likewise, is excellent in the leading man's role. Others in the cast are Vera Reynolds, Theodore Roberts and Charles Clary. The story was adapted by Monte M. Katterjorn.

Weather and the Death Rate.

The general death rate is found to increase with rising temperature, and to diminish with a falling thermometer. These conclusions are reached by Doctor Ellsworth Huntington of Yale, and are a result of a study of about 400,000 deaths in New York city in connection with the weather on the day of death. The peculiarities seem to apply to all seasons. Variety in the weather is healthful and stimulating, and it is believed that some variability is as essential as proper humidity.

FERTILIZER REBATE

Announcement has just been made by the Farm Bureau that a rebate of nine per cent of the purchase price on all fall fertilizer is to be sent to the purchaser. This means a distribution rebate in Pickaway county of $2082.94. This amount will be distributed among approximately four hundred farmers in the county who purchased their fertilizer thru their township agents.

This rebate brings the price on sixteen per cent acid phosphate to approximately $20 per ton, net to the purchaser. In some instances, the freight rate reduced the cost below this amount.

RED CROSS

Patriotic Duty to Help All Our Soldier Boys at This Time.

The seventh annual Roll Call for Pickaway county chapter, American Red Cross is on thruout the city and county and this is your opportunity to stand by those who stood by you when the United States entered the great conflict.

After the war only three counties in Ohio permitted their Red Cross chapter to lapse and Pickaway was one. The other two are very small counties. The loss of a chapter was deeply felt by the soldier, seeking compensation, hospitalization or vocational training until Washington sent a representative here.

It is our patriotic duty to revive this chapter and into this movement breathe the spirit of penitent acknowledgement and high resolve to aid those who gave their all in those stirring days.

Pickaway county had 800 men in Uncle Sam's army, navy and marines. Of this number thirty-three are on the honor Gold Star roll. This includes one nurse. Many have died since of wounds received in battle or of disease incurred in the hardships of camps or on battlefields. Is it possible that we can forget so soon. No. No. When the collector calls let each one answer HERE.

All the work thruout the county is volunteer and it is hoped that this campaign will sustain the reputation of old Pickaway in its unselfish devotion in war times.

The First Ward, East precinct, thru its chairman, E. K. Ebert, has already reported and "gone over the top with colors flying." If the other wards do as well the loyalty of the city will be told in unstinted praise.

In Memoriam.

Editor Union-Herald:—John Charles Coon, son of George Coon and Sarah Ann Wilson was born at St. Paul, Madison township, Pickaway county, Ohio, October 18, 1836, and departed this life in Groveport November 11, 1923, aged 87 years and 23 days.

He was the fifth child of a family of nine children. The one grandfather George Coon, came from Virginia, the other, Daniel Wilson, came from Delaware, both settling in Madison township, Pickaway county, in 1806. The deceased received a thoro common school education in the public schools at St. Paul, Ohio.

He removed to Groveport January 26, 1888 to enter into the general mercantile business which was pursued successfully at one location for almost 34 years.

Mr. Coon was supported by his fellow citizens for many positions of public trust, his serving them as committeeman, delegate to county, congressional and state conventions, councilman, member of the board of education, deputy state supervisor and inspector of elections, and postmaster, the latter three different times for a total period of 19 years, a record of which he was always proud. But rightly so, as with all the public offices they were a public trust, to which he applied all his energies as tho they were his private affairs which were administered with business ability and strictest economy. In this connection it is worthy of note that largely thru Mr. Coon's efforts the system of rural postal delivery was introduced into this section which has worked most satisfactorily and to the benefit of the people.

He was united in marriage December 20, 1882 with Maggie L. Kelly whose sudden demise occurred March 27, 1893. To this union were born five children, three of whom survive, Charles of Groveport; Mabel Florence wife of Charles Brady of Marion; and Anna Louise, wife of Frank Ury of Canton.

On December 6, 1899, he was married to Sida J. Beckett, who as a loving wife comforted him thru the over two and one-half years illness with which he was stricken.

Mr. Coon was a member of the Independent order of Odd Fellows for over 33 years.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at the Groveport M. E. church with Rev. A. E. Noethlich, the pastor officiating. Burial in Reber Hill cemetery.

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank relatives and friends for their floral offerings, their expressions of sympathy and for every help in our time of sorrow.

The Family.

"Horse and Horse." "Horse and horse" is a term that describes the state of equality of two persons in throwing dice. It is applied specifically to dice throwing and where the participants have each one sitting east to the other.

Black Velvet Is Used for Afternoon Frock

This winsome black velvet afternoon frock is banded in skunk and is trimmed with brilliant orange velvet. The dressy lace hat completes the outfit.

Interesting Notes of Importance to Women

The suppleness of this season's soft velvets makes them particularly graceful for evening cloaks. Invariably topped by a wide fur collar, these cloaks permit the velvet to be gathered up into soft ruffles tier on tier.

One young London beauty startled society by appearing at a ball recently with a cameo pin fastened around one ankle by a black velvet ribbon. Such use of a cameo on the wrist is not uncommon but whether the ankle ornament will be widely adopted remains to be seen.

The choker necklace is now accompanied by the choker bracelet and the two may be had in a set with earrings to match. The choker bracelet is merely a tight bracelet of big glass beads, matching the necklace.

Narrow metallic ribbon, in silver, gold or bronze, is run into some of the more elaborate satin lingerie. Occasionally the upper part of such lingerie has a yoke of brocaded metallic satin, the rest of the garment being of plain georgette.

As it is today, if you want a normal waistline you may have it; if not, your waistline may continue as low as you wish. As for the length of skirts they are theoretically longer but actually shorter if anything.

Who said the day of the coat frock was over? Today the coat frock is more in favor than ever. Many of the street dresses in woolen and serge materials are smartly tailored in coat effect.

Half the dresses one sees today are made up of lace and the other half of the dresses one sees are trimmed with feeling lace panels, flounces, or sleeve ruffles. Bits of bright embroideries are appearing as supplements to the lace trimmings.

Cloth Bag Container for Your Vegetables

A convenient kitchen appurtenance is the cloth bag that will hold a head of lettuce to be put into the ice box, or a bunch of radishes or perhaps a longer container for the celery stalks. Soft muslin is best for these, and several sets are none too many, for they should be laundered and kept sweet and clean. Make them wide enough and long enough so that whatever is put in them will not be crushed when the draw string is pulled up.

They should have a draw string, of course. Make the bags of different lengths and widths, so that all kinds of vegetables may be put into them and laid on the ice. Stitch them across the ends and up the sides. Turn a wide hem, stitch twice with a half-inch space between, run in a neat draw string, and they are ready for use. Once these bags are used, the housewife will never again be without them.

From cretonnes, calicoes, percales and other left-overs, pot-holders can be made, and there can never be too many of these in the kitchen. A good size for these is eight inches square. They can be hung by a brass ring sewn in the corner, or by a loop made from the material.

Attractive Blouses.

The newest blouses of printed crepe, showing fresh light colors, are to be had both in hip bands and jacquette models, the former finished with Peter Pan collars and cuffs of white organdie with knife-plaited edgings. Cross-over blouses made of Deauville handkerchiefs show wide fagot stitched hems of plain georgette of the same color as the suit with which they are worn. White Shetland wool sweater blouses of jumper shape, worked all over with bright colored silk cross stitch designs, are worn with white coats and skirts.

HOPE TO SOLVE RIDDLE OF LOST TRIBES IN CHINA

National Geographic Society Expedition to Invade Kweichow, Remote Province.

An expedition into the interior of China to solve the riddle of the lost tribes of that country, from which the American Indian and other present-day peoples may have sprung, is being arranged by the National Geographic society at Washington.

It was announced recently that the party of ethnologists will go to Kweichow, one of the most remote provinces of China, where lives a race distinct from the modern Chinese, clinging tenaciously to the queer customs of bygone ages.

Selecting the least fertile, least accessible and most backward part of the country as their home, these people have shut themselves off from the rest of the world and heretofore denied students the privilege of residence.

The scope of the contribution the National Geographic society's research will make to science cannot be determined, but scientists say that it may make Kweichow a vista of hitherto unrecorded history. One of the few visitors among the strange tribes said that there are types resembling the Gurkha, the South Sea Islander, the American Indian, the East Indian and the negro.

Ethnologists at the National museum say the expedition undoubtedly will open up to science an entirely new chapter in the history of human life. The little that is known of the tribes, they say, strongly indicates that they were founders of the red race and that types of the American Indian may still be found. Stranger still, evidences of pure white tribes have been discovered by the few travelers who barely penetrated the borders of Kweichow.

Close by Turkestan, where primitive man is supposed to have first learned to domesticate animals, it has been suggested that Kweichow may be the long-sought cradle of civilization, the plain upon which human life was first evolved. Between two and three million members of the non-Chinese tribes survive there, and the opportunity for study among them has not yet been lost. Their slow absorption by the modern Chinese, however, has been going on since 2356 B. C.

SCHOOLGIRL WINNER OF SAFETY ESSAY CONTEST

Theodora Poole, thirteen-year-old schoolgirl at Lansing, Mich., wins the distinction of having triumphed over more than 400,000 pupils in the second national safety essay contest conducted by the highway education board, Washington, D. C. As a reward she received a gold watch and a visit to Washington with all expenses paid, gift of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce. Her essay, "My Share in Making the Highways Safe," was written while a student in Pontiac (Mich.) schools. She is a nature enthusiast and her recreation is "helping mother keep house, and having a good time with mother, father and little sister and the car." The board announces a renewal of the contest for this year.

NEW TYPE OF PINEAPPLE

Yellow Potato Also Brought to U. S. From Peru.

New varieties of pineapple and a new yellow potato were brought to this country recently by Francis MacBride, botanist, for the Field Museum of Natural History at Chicago, on his return aboard the steamship Santa Teresa, from a two-years' sojourn in central Peru. In the course of his tour Mr. MacBride has sent to the museum about 6,000 varieties of plants, including Peruvian coffee, corn, beans and other vegetables of wide economic value.

YOUTHFUL BANDITS

Hold Up Proprietors of Hotel at Grove City and Escape With $200.

The hotel operated by Ketterer & Enders at Grove City was held up by three youths at 11 o'clock Wednesday night. Mr. Ketterer was robbed of $200. The three youths none of whom were more than twenty years of age entered the hotel and ordered Mr. Ketterer, Kinsel Hill, Lawrence Miller and Tom Reed, who were sitting in the lobby to put up their hands. Ketterer, however, ran across the street. One of the holdup men followed and there robbed him of $200. Nothing was taken from the others.

The holdups obtained a revolver from the hotel safe, and made their escape in a flivver. They started towards Columbus on the Harrisburg pike.

WHERE THE RAINBOW TOUCHES THE GROUND

THE family cat died. The farmer who owned the cat, in digging the grave discovered a substance which proved to be marl. This farmer had been hauling limestone a long distance for his alfalfa fields. In conference with his county agent, he discovered that marl would take the place of lime in correcting the acidity of his soil. This experience led him to the use of marl that existed on his own farm and saved him much time and considerable expense in hauling.

Similar opportunities have existed and still exist. Many farmers in the middle west will recall what a pest sweet clover used to be. Now this pest is being used profitably as hay and pasture for livestock and as a crop to be plowed under for increasing the fertility of the soil.

Kansas is called the "Sunflower State" and those who have lived there will well remember how they have fought this weed. Today sunflowers are being grown as a crop, as feed for chickens and it is also being utilized with or without corn as a suitable crop for the silo.

It is surprising to discover how many things which were frowned upon in days gone by are now serving a useful purpose. These changes have been brought about by observation and study. Brains count on the farm as elsewhere. The man who thinks while he is performing physical work is not only opening up the way for larger profits but he is removing the word drudgery from his vocabulary and is transforming what used to be a drudgery into a profitable pleasure. —The Banker-Farmer.

BANKERS HELP THE KIDS

Her Very Own Pig—A Boys and Girls Club Member

Virginia, Minnesota, Bankers have faith in "kids." Meeting with a committee from the Virginia Chamber of Commerce they formulated plans for the establishment of Calf Clubs and "Pure Bred Bull Associations." Banks all over St. Louis county have pledged their support to this work.

An Arkansas bank loaned a youngster $70. In 1920. The boy bought a purebred Poland China gilt from a breeder in a neighboring state. Being the first purebred gilt brought into the county for boys and girls club work, she has furnished more stock than any other sow in the section. With the start that the bank gave the youngster he has been able to refute the claim that hog raising in his county was not profitable, for at the present time he has more than $1000 to his credit as a result of the original bank loan and investment.

REMARKABLE SAVINGS FIGURES

Remarkable progress in the savings habit in the United States is shown in figures presented to the recent convention of the American Bankers Association by Samuel H. Beach, president of its Savings Bank Division.

In 1921, Mr. Beach showed, twenty-six million people had savings accounts aggregating $16,618,595,000. In 1922, there was an increase of over four per cent, bringing the aggregate up to $17,300,000,000. Similar statistics for 1912 showed that the aggregate was only about half as much as in 1922 or only $8,433,000,000.

Mr. Beach's report on school savings banking showed that practically two million pupils are now participating in school banking systems, an increase of 34 per cent as compared with last year and 58 per cent as compared with 1921, while the total of the actual amount deposited last year was $9,618,000, as compared with $5,775,000 in 1921 and $2,800,000 in 1920, an increase of nearly 340 per cent in three years.

Bees Do Not Sting Skunks.

That skunks will eat bees is the testimony of E. L. Denslow of Conneaut township. He came upon one in the act of moving his hives enough to bring out the bees, and when they came out the skunk ate them. Denslow fired at the animal but missed. Later the skunk came back and repeated the performance, again getting away.

Maryland in History.

The city of Baltimore was founded in 1728, Frederick in 1745 and Georgetown in 1751. Maryland played an honorable part in the Revolutionary war, and in 1783 congress met at Annapolis, where, on December 23, after the conclusion of peace, Washington resigned his commission as commander in chief. In the war of 1812 the state suffered severely. Fort McHenry was bombarded by the English fleet in September, 1814, this battle being the occasion for the writing of "The Star-Spangled Banner" by Francis Scott Key.

Wanted Smell to Materialize.

John had been taken by his mother for a long ride to see an old aunt who was slow in getting the dinner on the table. John was hungry and could smell the dinner. Finally, in order to hurry things a little, he edged up to the aunt and said: "I'll be so glad when I can taste that smell, won't you?"

Largest Pipe Organ.

What is undoubtedly the largest and probably the greatest pipe organ ever made was that which was played in Festival hall in St. Louis, during the exposition in 1904. It was originally made for Convention hall, in Kansas City, but was never accepted. It remained in storage for years and was then bought by John Wanamaker and installed in his Philadelphia store, where it is played every working day. The organ weighs 375,000 pounds.

Accepted Incident as Mandate.

A remarkable case of ring finding is related of St. Attilan, bishop of Zamora, who lived in the tenth century. He wanted to surrender his bishopric and threw his episcopal ring into the Douro. But a fish brought it back to him, and he concluded that he should continue to bear his burden.

HARTMAN THEATER

"The World's greatest show; Bigger and Brighter than ever," was a slogan adopted and made famous by America's greatest tent showman. It is one that can be truthfully and justly taken over by Wagenhals & Kemper for their production of "The Bat" which they present the week of November 19, at the Hartman theater, Columbus.

"The Bat" has earned the title of the world's greatest show by smashing every known record for a dramatic production on four continents and in seven different countries. It has been played with equal success in eleven languages and has delighted one president, two kings and five queens, along with plenty of other royalty mixed in with 9,000,000 persons who have seen this Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood masterpiece to date, with no signs of the play's popularity diminishing. It is "bigger" than ever because since it played over two years in New York, a year each in London and Chicago and a season each in Boston and Philadelphia, "The Bat" has shattered over 3,000 other records thruout the United States and Canada. It is "better" than ever for Wagenhals & Kemper are sending a special cast for this engagement. The cast coming to the Hartman is the one that will play New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and Boston later this season for return engagement. It is "brighter" for the simple reason that a brand new production has been provided in view of metropolitan return engagements.

The cast includes five of the members of famous special "Big Cities" company with five other augmentations. The old members are Julia Stuart, Ursula Ellsworth, Charles Gott hold, Robert Ranous, Albert Lawrence Harold Heaton and Ben H. Roberts. This is now the most important organization dispensing the laughs, thrills and sensational mystery now made historic in the theater by "The Bat." One of the most astonishing features of the play's record is the popularity of this hit this present season. It seems to be increasing, rather than diminishing as was anticipated by the producers. In several instances "The Bat" has broken its own previous high records this season on return presentations; and in almost every instance has equalled the high marks set the first and second engagements played in various cities. In view of the productions from theatrical wisecracks that a mystery play could not survive a single year, this is even more amazing. "The Bat" has already piled up more profits and royalty than was ever dreamed of for one play prior to its appearance. And now it seems to have only begun an everlasting career. That its merit as an entertainment is unbounded is indicated by the delight with which it is viewed a second or third time. "Repeat" members of the jammed theaters are the most enthusiastic units of the record audiences.

Bible Thought for Today

DUTY OF THE STRONG. — We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.—Rom. 15:1.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

Sunday School Lesson

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(© 1923, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 25

CHRISTIANS CALLED TO BE MISSIONARIES

LESSON TEXT—John 17:18; Matt. 28:16-20; Acts 1:6-8.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Go ye therefore and teach all nations."—Matt. 28:19.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Telling Everyone About Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Our Marching Orders.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Working Together With Christ.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—World-Wide Witnessing for Christ.

I. Sent by Christ (John 17:18).
Christ was sent into the world to save it. Just as He was sent, so He sends us. Just as He was obedient to the Father's command, so we should be to His command. That this might be possible Christ set apart himself, and that the disciples might be fit for this work they are to be sanctified through the truth of God's Word. That which fits the one called to represent Christ is the knowledge of God's holy Word.

II. The Great Commission (Matt. 28:16-20).
At an appointed meeting place in Galilee on a mountain side, Jesus appeared before the disciples and gave this great commission.

1. His Claim of Authority (v. 18).
He does not claim to be merely the King of the Jews, but King of Kings and Lord of Lords. He stands clothed with the authority and power of the universe. Before there will be any great concern about evangelizing the world there must be an understanding of the power and might of Jesus Christ as Lord. The Lord must and shall be obeyed.

2. The Obligation Imposed (vv. 19, 20).
They are to make disciples of all nations. The obligation of the Christian is not merely to preach the gospel to the Jews, but to all the nations. Those who accept Christ as Savior and Lord are to be baptized in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. By this means they openly acknowledge their allegiance to Jesus Christ as their divine Lord. To secure public avowal of loyalty to Christ is important. It strengthens the character of the confessor. They are also to be instructed to render obedience to all the commandments and requirements of the divine Lord.

3. The Divine Presence Promised (v. 20).
To assure the disciples of the success of their undertaking, Jesus guarantees His presence at all times and under all circumstances. That which gives courage and encouragement to the missionary today is the assurance of the unfulfilling promise of the Lord Jesus Christ.

III. The Missionary Program (Acts 1:6-8).
It is essential that the missionary program be understood. The work incumbent upon the church is to witness of Christ's gracious salvation to all the nations. After this is done there will follow the preaching of the gospel of the kingdom by converted Israelites. This was not clear to the disciples, therefore they put the question, "Wilt thou at this time restore the kingdom of Israel?" They were right in thinking that the kingdom will be restored. The Davidic kingdom shall be established, but not till after the gospel of the grace of God is preached and the body of Christ is completed. Its realization is certain, but the time is unknown. Times and seasons are in the hands of God. The program which the disciples are to carry out in this present time is witnessing for Christ.

1. In Jerusalem (v. 8).
This was done by the Twelve immediately following Pentecost.
2. In Judea and Samaria (v. 8).
This was done by the disciples after the hands of the persecutors were laid on them. Not only the Twelve but many others took part in this.
3. Unto the Uttermost Parts of the Earth.
Beginning with the first foreign missionary enterprise this work has been carried on with varying degrees of success till the present time.

Being Self-Centered.

Nothing is more wearing or a more fruitful source of unhappiness in the long run than to be self-centered. If our thoughts and plans, our hopes and fears, our ideals and ambitions all center in our own personal comfort and happiness, there must come many a day of infinite weariness and self-disgust when life does not seem worth living. Poverty or riches have very little to do with it. You will find just as many well-to-do people as poor, for whom life has lost its spice and enthusiasm. It is not a question of capital, but of character.

SMALL TOWN HUMOR AND PHILOSOPHY

By BUCK CAMPBELL

A young man may be sharp and yet not cut much ice.

You can't get much encouragement in a town where you can't get a dollar.

Men who pass the hat at church, when they are at home, may pass the buck when they are out among strangers.

"Say, doctor, do you think he could stand another operation?" asked the anxious wife. "O, yes, I have looked up his commercial rating."

An animated discussion with something you don't know anything about with some one who knows less about it than you do is always enjoyable.

Rights Conferred by Freedom.

In a free country every man thinks he has a concern in all public matters—that he has a right to form and a right to deliver an opinion on them.—Burke.

CITY COUNCIL

City Building to be Remodeled—Much Business Transacted.

The city council met in regular session Wednesday evening, November 21, with President Felix R. Caldwell presiding and all members present.

Mr. Hedges, as chairman of the committee consisting of all the members of council to whom had been referred the ordinance fixing the compensation to be paid the city solicitor, reported by recommending that the salary of the solicitor be fixed as $700 per year. This report was accepted.

A resolution requiring the construction of a fire wall between the property of the city and a proposed garage to be erected by the State of Ohio on their lot in the rear of armory, was referred to a committee consisting of all the members of council with Mr. Jeffries as chairman.

An ordinance amending Section No. 32 of the revised and codified ordinances of the city fixing the salary of the city solicitor was passed under suspension of the rules.

A resolution authorizing the payment of $120 to William McCrady for the balance of his salary while off duty on account of an accident which occurred on June 24, from the city was adopted.

The matter of remodeling the interior of the city building was referred to a committee consisting of all members of council with Mr. Jeffries as chairman.

The committee reported by offering a resolution approving the plans for this improvement and this was adopted.

A resolution accepting, adopting and approving the plans, specifications, profiles and estimates for remodeling and reconstructing some parts of the city building was passed under suspension of the rules.

Mr. Shaner reported that since the highway department had widened the Circleville and Chillicothe pike just below the residence of James I. Smith that the present culvert is not wide enough to use the entire width of the road and this was referred to a committee consisting of all members of council with Mr. Shaner, as chairman.

The matter of buying a road roller was referred to a committee consisting of all members of council with Mr. Jeffries, as chairman.

EXPLORER TO HUNT FOR THE FORKED-TAIL MONKEY

To Enter Lands Where They Never Heard of World War.

Washington.—Kweichow, where the mysterious non-Chinese tribes of China live and where the famed forked-tail monkey is said to dwell, is to be explored by an expedition sent by the National Geographic society.

Frederick R. Wulsin has been designated to proceed to Peking to organize his staff for the trip into the remotest part of China. The province to be explored is about the size of Missouri and has a population of 8,000,000. It is as inaccessible as Tibet.

One of the few visitors who has penetrated only the fringe of Kweichow said he saw types resembling the Gurka, the South Sea Islander, the American Indian, the East Indian and the negro.

About 3,500,000 of the non-Chinese of the province have survived the process of Chinese absorption. Many of the strongholds have never been visited by white men and whole tribes do not know that the World war was fought.

Occasional travelers have reported how some of the tribes thrash grain on the rooftops, as in the Holy Land; how others have great "prayer flags" flying on fortified castles, and how quarrels are settled on horseback with blunderbusses, broadswords and bags of stones as weapons.

The monkey expedition will seek is the Rhinopithecus Brelich, of which the only evidence available now is a skin. There has been speculation, the Geographic society says, regarding the possibility of this species being an animal described in a famous passage of Chinese literature, as follows:

"Its nose is turned upward, and the tail, very long and forked at the end; whenever it rains the animal thrusts the forks into its nose. It goes in herds and lives in friendship; when one dies the rest accompany it to burial. Its activity is so great that it runs its head against the trees; its fur is soft and gray and the face black."

China Agrees to Guard Aliens From Bandits

Peking.—China's reply to the second note of the diplomatic corps regarding the Lincheng bandit outrage, delivered to the legations reverses the former uncompromising attitude of the Peking government toward some of the demands. The latest note meets in a large measure the stipulations designed by the powers to provide greater security for foreigners.

The Chinese government has issued a mandate dismissing from office Tien Chung-Yu, under whose jurisdiction the Lincheng bandits operated last May when they held up an express train and kidnapped numerous foreigners.

Girl Saves 17 Persons From Death on Bridge

Ottawa.—The presence of mind of Eunice Parker, girl guide, saved the lives of 17 of her charges who were bilking on a high bridge over the Ryda river at night, when she ordered them to throw themselves flat on the outer ties to escape death beneath an on-rushing Canadian Pacific locomotive. The nineteenth member of the party, however, Mrs. A. Campbell, failed to hear the command. Her body was found among the rocks 40 feet below the bridge.

BARCUS FARM SOLD

Columbus Railway and Light Company is New Owner

The Columbus Railway and Light company which has recently bought about 500 acres of the Barcus farm proposes constructing a railroad from the N. & W. tracks. The point where the proposed road will leave the N. & W. track is just north of Davis station, running west along the line between the farm of C. A. Peters and the farms of Mrs. Criss Rathmell, Mrs. Richard VanMeter and Mrs. Fan nie Blake. Thence thru Paul Peters' farm near his north line. Crossing the Chillicothe pike near where the Crooked bridge spanned the old canal. The right of way deal is on now between the interested parties—Ashville News.

TO DIFFER FROM MELLON PLAN

Democrats Will Foster a Tax Reduction Bill.

VIEWS MUST BE HARMONIZED

This Will Be Problem For the Congressional Managers on Both Sides. Democrats Also to Stand For Wholesale Reduction in Appropriations—Would Restore Excess Profits Tax.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Tax reduction sentiment in congress has reached the point where the only question at issue involves the specific levies that shall be dealt with and the extent to which reductions shall be made.

One development was a definite announcement that the Democrats will favor sweeping reductions not only in taxes, but in appropriations as well.

The announcement was made by Senator William H. King of Utah after an extended conference with Cordell H. Hull, chairman of the Democratic national committee, and other Democratic leaders.

Senator King emphasized that there will be no nonpartisan coalition with the Republicans, as suggested by Republican leaders. The Democrats, he declared, will introduce their own bill. It will differ in some respects from the Mellon program and follow it in others. The problem then for the congressional managers on both sides will be to harmonize the divergent views in a satisfactory composite bill.

Senator King said the Democrats will fight for wholesale reduction in appropriations, so as to make possible tax cuts beyond those suggested by Mr. Mellon. Instead of providing for governmental expenditures aggregating $3,000,000,000 for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1924, as proposed in the recently completed budget, it is his opinion that not more than $2,500,000,000 will be necessary. Of this total $1,000,000,000 would suffice for ordinary expenses of the government, the Utah senator asserted. The second $1,000,000,000 would cover interest and sinking fund charges on the national debt. The remaining $500,000,000 should amply take care of the needs of the disabled ex-service men.

King said the Democrats agreed with Mr. Mellon and the Republican leaders that as much as possible of the burden on the poor should be removed and virtually all excise and so-called nuisance taxes ought to be eliminated. But, the senator said, it was not thought that as much of the surtaxes should be taken off the higher incomes as the treasury chief proposes. In addition, he favored restoration of the excess profits tax and increase of the inheritance tax.

WOULD ACCEPT FORD OFFER

Bernard Baruch Favors Development of Muscle Shoals.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Interest in Henry Ford's offer to take over and develop the nitrate manufacturing plant at Muscle Shoals was revived by Senator Ladd of North Dakota, who made public a letter from Bernard M. Baruch, urging acceptance by the government of the Ford offer.

In his letter, which was written Nov. 3, Mr. Baruch said: "To my mind that is the only possible basis for solving this case. If Mr. Ford is willing to put his reputation as a great industrialist behind this development, the government, rather than let this plant lie idle, could afford to make almost any contract with him, provided the work is undertaken now. We ought to make some practical and immediate use of the huge sums of money that it was necessary to spend for war purposes, but which could now be put to the constructive uses of peace."

Liquor Cargo Landed.

Highlands, N. C., Nov. 22.—Rum runners took more than 20 loads from five liquor carriers about 10 miles off the Highlands in the first extensive smuggling operation attempted in months. With the exception of one load, which was dumped into the sea when Warrant Officer Tilton of the Sandy Hook coast guards gave chase, all the liquor was reported safely ashore. At least half of it is believed to have been landed by runners from this vicinity.

Miss Hildreth Schulte shot and killed Carl Potters and then committed suicide at Meek, Tex., as the result of a lover's quarrel.

IN SECOND DEGREE

Slayer of Tenwalde Family Found Guilty of Murder.

Ottawa, O., Nov. 22.—Charles Shank, Putnam county, farmhand, was found guilty of the second degree murder of Mrs. William Tenwalde of near Kalida, this county. The state had demanded the death penalty. The jury deliberated 25 hours.

Shank also is under indictment for the slaying of Olive Tenwalde, the unwed mother of his child and a daughter of Mrs. Tenwalde, and Lawrence Tenwalde, a nephew. Shank admitted the triple slaying at the Tenwalde farm three months ago, but at his trial declared he committed the deeds because the Tenwalde family had separated him and Olive and had taken their babe from them. He also alleged self-defense. He had gone to the Tenwalde farm the day of the shooting to take Olive to a picnic. In the kitchen of the Tenwalde home, he charged, Mrs. Tenwalde and Lawrence made as though to attack him.

The state has not disclosed if Shank will be prosecuted on charges of slaying Olive and Lawrence Tenwalde.

Packers to Resist.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—A court fight to test the authority of government auditors to have full access to books of packing companies is indicated by the statement of L. F. Swift, president of Swift & Company, that his concern will resist the attempt of the secretary of agriculture to investigate company affairs. "Such attempted regulation of the entire business can but result in conflict of regulation and the confusion of the industry," Mr. Swift said. "It will probably be necessary to let the courts decide this issue."

MAGNUS JOHNSON SPEAKS

Promotion of World Peace the Biggest Issue, He Says.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Labor champion from Minnesota, arrived here to take up his senatorial duties. After establishing himself in the senate office building he left with Mrs. Johnson to look at houses in Takoma Park, Md., about seven miles from the capital. Johnson said he would affiliate with the LaFollette progressive bloc. His plans regarding legislation and organization of the senate, however, have not matured. He will confer with his colleagues in the "progressive group" immediately. The biggest issue now before the country, he said, is what this government can and should do to promote world peace. He made it plain very quickly, however, that he did not mean that the United States should involve itself in European entanglements and that he did not support France's present course. "I am not for the league of nations," Johnson stated. "I am not for the world court either."

Charged With Bigamy.

Columbus, Nov. 22.—Mrs. Flora Brown, 30, is held here on a charge of bigamy, as the result of an affidavit filed by John A. Brown of Chicago, who alleges that she is married to a man in Columbus by the name of Claud Sessell. On Feb. 2, 1923, Brown alleges, he married the woman in Chicago. Since that time she left him, he charges. On Oct. 8 Mrs. Brown married Claud Sessell here in Columbus, and was living with him at the time of her arrest, police say.

ARRESTS LIKELY TO BE ORDERED

Prosecutions Loom as a Result of Veterans' Bureau Inquiry.

DAUGHERTY ADVISED TO ACT

Proceedings Against Persons Named in Bribery, Graft and Conspiracy Charges Before the Senate Committee to Be Begun Soon, It Is Said. Part of Mrs. Mortimer's Secret Testimony Revealed.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Criminal action against persons named in bribery, graft and conspiracy charges before the senate veterans' bureau investigating committee will be begun at once by the department of justice, it was authoritatively learned.

Examination of the committee's evidence, it was stated, has convinced the department that the matter is now one for the courts. Prosecuting officers have advised Attorney General Daugherty that arrests be ordered immediately, based on the charges before the subcommittee, to be followed instead of preceded by grand jury action.

Mrs. Katherine Tullidge Mortimer, wife of Elias H. Mortimer, Forbes' chief accuser, has charged that her husband frequently beat and otherwise mistreated her, it was revealed here.

Mrs. Mortimer is also alleged to have accused her husband of repeated drunkenness and other conduct embarrassing to her. She emphatically denied any improper conduct at any time between her and Forbes or that there was anything in their relations and friendship that could be open to criticism. These accusations and denials are contained in the sworn statement by Mrs. Mortimer when she was secretly examined by the committee two weeks ago.

Mortimer declared at his last appearance before the committee that the compelling motive that prompted him to make his accusations of bribery, graft, conspiracy, etc., against Forbes and others was because he had failed in "keeping her (Mrs. Mortimer) away from that fellow, Forbes, and his tool, Sidney Bieber."

The committee agreed to release such portions of it as were considered relevant for the record.

AMBASSADORS SEND NOTE TO BERLIN

Germany Must Submit to Allied Military Control.

Paris, Nov. 22.—With France reserving the right to impose penalties on Germany without consulting her allies, the council of ambassadors framed a note to the Berlin government demanding that Germany submit to the immediate resumption of allied military control and insure the allies against any political upheaval as a result of the return to Germany of the former crown prince.

Premier Baldwin and Lord Curzon sent instructions which enabled the council to arrive at an understanding, avoiding a definite break between England and France.

The note, which will be forwarded to Berlin at once, demands that the allied military control of Germany must begin to function at once. While the note will state that while the fact is recognized that Crown Prince Wilhelm has renounced his right to the throne and agreed not to take part in politics in Germany, the reich will be held responsible by the allies for preventing any action tending to restore the throne to the prince and also to prevent any possibility of the return of the former kaiser. It will declare that if Germany does not obey the injunctions in the note the allies will consider levying other penalties than have heretofore been imposed.

Protests His Innocence.

Mexico City, Nov. 22.—Mexican government secret service men took into custody Count Alfonso de Vour, alias Abraham Houston, on a charge of passing counterfeit money. The prisoner of many aliases declares he is a member of the French nobility and staunchly protests his innocence despite the circulars sent out from the United States and Guatemala seeking his apprehension.

DOINGS IN OHIO

Tattooer Convicted.

Cleveland, Nov. 22.—James E. Wild was given an indeterminate sentence in the Ohio state reformatory by Judge C. following his conviction on a charge of stabbing to wound in the tattooing of his name on the body of Miss Marie Sanko, his ex-sweetheart. Sentence was suspended pending a ruling on a motion for a new trial by Nathan E. Cook, Wild's attorney.

Locher to Attend.

Columbus, Nov. 22.—Commerce Director Locher will represent Ohio at the conference called by Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania to consider a program of national legislation to reduce the price of anthracite coal, it was announced by Governor Donahy. The conference is at Harrisburg, Pa., the afternoon of Nov. 26.

Boys Admit Burglaries.

Akron, O., Nov. 22.—Following their arrest 13 boys, ranging in age from 11 to 17 years, are said to have confessed to 15 burglaries and the theft of five automobiles. Four groceries, two restaurants, a butcher shop and a barber shop are included in the list of robberies charged against five of the lads.

Ruling On Home-Made Wine.

Lima, O., Nov. 22.—Makers of wine at home for use in the home by members of the family, none being given away or sold, can not be prosecuted under the Crabbe act, even though the liquor should prove to be intoxicating, Probate Judge J. H. Hamilton ruled in a decision here.

Dog Rouses Family.

Marietta, O., Nov. 22.—Barking of a dog probably saved the lives of eight members of Gus Henderham's family when fire destroyed their farm home east of this city. One entire portion of the home was enveloped in flames when the barking of the animal aroused the family.

Hold-Up Frustrated.

Akron, O., Nov. 22.—Ben Browdie, a butcher here, frustrated an attempted holdup when, armed with a heavy cleaver, he struck a gunman over the head and chased both stickup artists down the street. They had ordered him to turn over the contents of the cash register.

Collision Proves Fatal.

Eaton, O., Nov. 22.—After conversing with physicians for 30 minutes after his automobile was wrecked by a railroad train here, Ora Flora, 39, prominent farmer of this city, died. Death was due to shock, the physicians said, as he had sustained no broken bones or visible injuries.

To Shut Down One Day a Week.

Columbus, Nov. 22.—Four thousand employees of the Columbus shops of the Pennsylvania railroad are idle today as a result of the railroad's new plan of shutting down one day a week to reduce expenses. The new policy is expected to be in effect for the remainder of the year.

Beer Shipment Seized.

Bowling Green, O., Nov. 22.—Nimrod Ashcraft of Covington, Ky., was arrested near here by Officers Alkire and Gallier, who said they found 65 cases of beer in the truck he was driving labeled "nine per cent."

Call for a national convention of the United Mine Workers of America in Indianapolis on Jan. 22 will be made soon, John L. Lewis, president of the miners' organization announced.

WORLD COURT UP TO SENATE

Coolidge May Not Make Direct Appeal for Ratification.

NOW UNDER STRONG PRESSURE

President's Message Likely to Make Mere Reference to the Fact That the Court Proposal Had Been Submitted by President Harding and That the Senate Should Make Some Disposition of It.

Washington, Nov. 22.—President Coolidge is expected to avoid making a direct appeal for ratification of the world court proposal in his message to congress.

It was authoritatively learned that the message will contain a mere reference to the fact that the world court proposal was submitted by President Harding and is still in the hands of the foreign relations committee, which should make some disposition of it. Beyond this, it is stated, the message will sidestep any recommendation as to whether or not the proposition should be ratified.

Strong pressure is being brought to bear upon the president to force him to depart from this position and come out in the open as a firm supporter of the world court. The chief instrument in this pressure is, of course, Secretary Hughes, with the assistance of Secretary Hoover. Pressure upon the president also is being exerted by the federal council of churches.

In opposition to the endeavors to have President Coolidge support the world court in a vigorous message there are others who are busily advising him for political reasons to evade the issue by making no recommendation at all, leaving it entirely in the hands of the senate to dispose of as it sees fit.

The difficulty in this position lies in the fact that such action by the president would not only offend supporters of the world court, who are demanding something more than a half-hearted reference to it in the message, but would also be displeasing to the irreconcilables, who will demand to know what the president is for or against it.

The attitude of Senator Hiram Johnson, for example, is that the people who are to vote for the next president have the right to know whether President Coolidge is for the court or favors keeping the United States entirely out of Europe. Johnson will make the court proposal an issue, no matter what way the president disposes of it in his message.

DUTY TO CHILDREN

Governor Donahy Issues Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Columbus, Nov. 22.—Governor Donahy issued a proclamation designating Thursday, Nov. 29, as Thanksgiving day. He said:

"In harmony with national tradition, a day during each year of our statehood has been devoted to joy and thankfulness, always with a quickening of the conscience and the glorification of the happy and righteous life. Let us make it a great day for the children, and especially on that day let us weigh our duty to the orphaned children. Men and women who do not hear the voices of little ones of their own, should share their material means by inviting to dinner the orphaned, homeless or poor. It would be a fine thing if childless families would on this Thanksgiving day resolve to adopt or insure the education and training of some child whose parents are helpless or in the grave, thereby sanctifying their own lives and rendering worthy thanks for divine favor."

Co-operation Urged.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 22.—Gifford Pinchot, governor of Pennsylvania, declared that the farmers to be prosperous must co-operate in marketing, buying and storage and must make the lakes-to-the-gulf deep waterway project a reality. Pinchot in his address before the national convention of the Farmers' Union said that both an internal network of waterways and co-operative marketing were the two things which would produce "better markets" for agricultural products.

Zeigler Arrested.

Berlin, Nov. 22.—Former Premier Zeigler, head of the Socialist-Communist government of Saxony, who was removed from office by force of arms by the reichswehr, was arrested at his home at Dresden on a charge of selling pardons.

COOK CONVICTED

Charged With Thirteen Others of Using the Mails to Defraud.

Ft. Worth, Tex., Nov. 22.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook and 13 associates were found guilty in the federal court here of using the mails to defraud in connection with the sale of oil stock. Cook and 12 others were found guilty on all 12 counts. S. E. J. Cox, Houston promoter, was found guilty on eight counts.

Defendants found guilty with Cook are: Seymour E. J. Cox, T. O. Turner, L. A. McKeecher, Arthur Eckman, W. P. Welty, Fred K. Smith, B. S. Henninger, R. L. Maxwell, W. L. Bradish, E. J. Bowen, S. L. Hess, C. W. Slets, J. S. Rocks.

The charges against Cook and his assistants were based mainly on promotion of the Petroleum Producers' association, of which Cook was "president and sole trustee." The evidence involved several other promotions. Receipts were reported to have been heavy.

Dr. Cook was sentenced to 14 years and nine months in prison and fined $12,000.

Charge Against Doctor.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 22.—The special grand jury investigating the operations of quack doctors in Connecticut instructed State's Attorney Alcorn to place a charge of manslaughter against Dr. George Maud Sutcliffe, in connection with the death of Albert M. Hoody, who occupied Sutcliffe's operating table at Unionville. According to information said to have been placed before the inquisitors, Hoody was one of seven patients who died while under Sutcliffe's ministrations within a year. Officials have been dispatched to Albany with instructions to locate Sutcliffe.

BRITISH SET A PRICE

Twelve-Mile Treaty Text Expected Within a Day or Two.

Washington, Nov. 22.—State department officials expect to receive the twelve-mile treaty text from London within a day or two, it was indicated here. Intimations have been received from London that it will grant Mr. Hughes everything he asks in the way of search and seizure rights, but with a price. Lord Curzon is said to have intervened into the treaty text a sweeping assertion that both nations recognize the three-mile limit as a principle of international law and are making a specific exception to it in this one instance. The effect of such a declaration, officials fear, might be to bind this government to the British viewpoint in the controversy between London and Moscow over Russian fishing rights beyond the three-mile limit.

Dead at 103.

Youngstown, O., Nov. 22.—Mrs. Rachel Jackson, 103, is dead at the home of her son here.

Blaze In Drug Store.

Canton, O., Nov. 22.—Fire caused $6,000 loss to stock and property of a Bolender drug store here.

"Paradise Regained" on Cabbage.
It is said that John Milton often used to have nothing but a few olives for dinner, and we do not wonder so much since learning this that he so seldom wrote anything cheerful. We do not think we could write anything cheerful ourselves after dining on a few olives, though we have done it not infrequently on boiled cabbage and prune whip.—Ohio State Journal.

LEGAL NOTICE

Public notice is hereby given that The Pickaway Water company has filed with The Public Utilities commission of Ohio an amendment to its schedule P. U. C. O. No. 2, specifying increased rates for water service at Circleville, Ohio, to become effective December 8, 1923, such proposed increased rates being as follows:

Flat Rates.
For water furnished by flat rate charge the rates shall be as follows:
For dwelling house not exceeding six rooms $ 8 00
For each additional room 1 00
For bath tub 3 00
For water closet in dwelling, per bowl 2 00
For each additional faucet (excepting hot water faucets).... 1 00
No charge additional for hot water faucets
For private garage or private stable 1 00
For lawn, garden and street sprinkling by hose, including washing and sprinkling sidewalks 50 feet front or less, including necessary faucets, therefor 5 00
For each additional foot frontage 10
For building purposes, frame dwelling, per room 75
For building purposes, concrete, stone or brick dwelling, per room 1 50
For other building, shall be meter rates for water consumed.

Said rates shall be due and payable quarterly and if not paid within ten days after the end of the quarter, the company may add 5% of the amount thereof.
All users of water by metered or measured service shall pay at the following rates:
Minimum Charge.
For the first 2000 gallons of water or fraction thereof per quarter sold thru each meter the company may charge for at not to exceed the rate of $7.60 per year payable quarterly for which the consumer shall be entitled to 2000 gallons per quarter without further charge.

Meter Rates.
For water furnished by meter measurements, at not to exceed the following rates:
For the next 2500 gallons or less per day at the rate of 42c per 1000 gallons.
For the next 3500 gallons or portions thereof per day at 20c per 1000 gallons. All over said amounts at the rate of 10c per 1000 gallons.

The foregoing water charges by meter measurements shall be payable quarterly at the end of each quarter at the office of the company, in the city of Circleville, Ohio. But bills may be rendered monthly where the consumption is in excess of 10,000 gallons per month.
Where water charges are payable quarterly, the quarters shall begin on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year and when payable monthly the month shall begin on the first thereof.

In case said charges for water are not paid within ten days after the end of the month or quarter during which the water was furnished to the consumer, the company may add 5% of the amount thereof.

A copy of the proposed schedule may be inspected by any interested party at the office of Roy E. Davis, superintendent, at the company's office in the city of Circleville, Ohio.

DIABETES

Caused Death of Miss Louise Brobst—

Funeral and Burial Saturday.

Miss Louise Brobst died at the Home and Hospital this morning at 1:30 o'clock. The deceased had been ill of diabetes for a year and a half.

She was the daughter of Leonard and Wilhelmina Weber Brobst. Miss Brobst was a member of the Lutheran church of this city. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. J. B. Maron of Chicago, Illinois, and Mrs. Emma Herring, of Mansfield.

The funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Trinity Lutheran church. Rev. G. J. Troutman will officiate. Interment of Forest cemetery.

Balanced Ration
Needed for Eggs

Profitable Returns From Laying Hens Are Largely Due to Good Feed.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Good egg production and profitable returns from laying hens are largely the result of properly balanced rations composed of wholesome feeds. Experiments in poultry feeding for egg production carried on by the United States Department of Agriculture show that it takes about 6.7 pounds of feed to produce a dozen eggs with general-purpose pullets while the egg-laying strains, such as Leghorns, require about 4.8 pounds of feed. Old hens require a much larger amount of feed in producing a dozen eggs.

Results From Simple Mixture.
Simple mixtures composed of home-grown grains and their by-products, supplemented with meat or fish scrap or milk, give the most profitable results. A good scratch mixture is one made of two parts cracked corn and one part oats, while a mash of three parts cornmeal and one part meat scrap will be found very satisfactory. A fair amount of green feed with these rations should give good results with the flock, since the mash and scratch mixtures suggested combine the animal-protein feed, bulk, and fat required by a good balanced poultry ration.

The rations may be varied to include feeds that are easily obtained and that are comparatively inexpensive. Corn, wheat, oats and barley are the principal grains fed to poultry. Kafir corn and buckwheat are used also, but are not so generally available and cost more. Corn and wheat are the two best grains and are about equal in value as poultry feeds, although wheat can be fed alone better than corn, which is inclined to be fattening. Oats and barley, on account of their hulls and higher fiber content, are not so good as wheat or corn. Rye is not well relished by fowls and is seldom fed. Wheat screenings or slightly damaged grains may sometimes be bought to advantage, their value depending entirely upon their quality and condition, but as a rule it is good policy to stick to sound grains in good condition.

Mash Made of Ground Grains.
A mash made of ground grains, mill products, and meat scrap may use cornmeal, wheat bran, wheat middlings, or corn chop, corn-and-cob meal, or ground oats, depending upon the feeds available and the relative cost of each. It is worth remembering, however, that just as good results can be obtained with a simple mash containing three or four ground grains and meat scrap as from a highly complicated mash containing ten or twelve products.

Insects Attack Apples
While Held in Storage

With more attention being paid to the grading of apples, anything which contributes to the deterioration of the fruit after packing or in storage will be of considerable interest to fruit growers. Observations made at Geneva and elsewhere show that late summer insects sometimes escape the notice of the packer and are put in storage, where later they may develop and do much damage to the fruit.

The larvae, or worm form of leaf-rollers, bud moth and case-bearers have been found feeding on apples piled in the orchard, while codling-moth larvae, the lesser apple worm, San Jose scale and apple maggots are known to have continued their feeding and development in supposedly sound fruit which had been placed in storage. Fortunately the codling moth and apple maggot confine their efforts to a single infested fruit, but the apple worm and San Jose scale may pass from apple to apple.

If the fruit can be placed in cold storage and held at just above freezing point until ready for use, little if any injury will result from insects inadvertently carried over with the apples. Although the larvae may not be killed, the low temperature will effectively check their growth. However, infested apples never keep quite so well in storage as do sound apples.

Exhaust of Automobile
Is Sure Death to Lice

Most every farmer has a car of some kind; and most every farmer has chickens; and therefore is troubled with vermin in the chicken house at some time. Well, here is the connection. It is new and reliable.

Just attach a rubber hose to the exhaust pipe of your motor and put the other end in the chicken house—with the chickens all out, of course. Close the house as tightly as you can, let the motor run about ten minutes, and bingo! Bugs, lice, mites and other vermin are gone. It is the cheapest lice killer known.

Scheme for Getting Rid
of Wild Onion or Garlic

Late fall plowing, followed by an infertile crop the following year, will get rid of wild onion, or garlic. Corn in check-rows is a good crop to plant. To get rid of the onions in pasture, if the plants are too numerous, dig each plant and destroy it. Sheep eat the tops of the onion, and grazing for a few years often kills it out. Coal-tar creosote oil applied to each plant at the rate of about four thumbfuls is effective in killing both the plant and its underground bulbs.

* * * * *

The Paramount picturization of Joseph Hocking's novel, "Prodigal Daughters" scored an artistic triumph at its opening showing at the Met theater last evening.

Gloria Swanson is in the stellar role with Ralph Graves playing opposite. How the unshackled girl of today, is unwittingly treading the downward path is the theme of the production. As "Swiftie" Forbes, the daughter of a financier, Miss Swanson resents being continuously under the censure of her father and breaks loose to make her own living. But all is not as she expected, and before long she returns to the parental roof, repentant and thoroughly cured.

"Prodigal Daughters" presents Gloria Swanson at her best. In no previous production has she been quite so vivacious and charming. Ralph Graves, likewise, is excellent in the leading man's role. Others in the cast are Vera Reynolds, Theodore Roberts and Charles Clary. The story was adapted by Monte M. Katterjorn.

Weather and the Death Rate.
The general death rate is found to increase with rising temperature, and to diminish with a falling thermometer. These conclusions are reached by Doctor Ellsworth Huntington of Yale, and are a result of a study of about 400,000 deaths in New York city in connection with the weather on the day of death. The peculiarities seem to apply to all seasons. Variety in the weather is healthful and stimulating, and it is believed that some variability is as essential as proper humidity.

FERTILIZER REBATE

Announcement has just been made by the Farm Bureau that a rebate of nine per cent of the purchase price on all fall fertilizer is to be sent to the purchaser. This means a distribution rebate in Pickaway county of $2082.94. This amount will be distributed among approximately four hundred farmers in the county who purchased their fertilizer thru their township agents.

This rebate brings the price on sixteen per cent acid phosphate to approximately $20 per ton, net to the purchaser. In some instances, the freight rate reduced the cost below this amount.

Hotel Stenographer
BY ROE FULKERSON

"Kelly, who was this Venus woman whose arms were broken off grabbing at the sheet that was slipping off her?" asked the Hotel Stenographer.

"You can search me," said the House Detective.

"I read she was supposed to be a perfect woman.

"She might be perfect for a kitchen mechanic, but, take it from me, she would sit out a lot of dances these days.

"Too big!
"I measure 12½ inches around the neck, 36 around the bust, 25 around the waist, with no pullings, 36 around the hips and 8½ around the ankles. When I put on a bathing suit and walk down the beach nobody turns a head away because I am hard to look at.

"Setting a standard for what is a beautiful woman is a joke. Nobody can make me think any man ever married a woman he thought homely. To him she is good looking. Beauty is in the eye of the beholder, not in the object beheld.

"The long, slim ones, the short, fat ones, the blondes, the brunettes, the red heads, the dark, the fair, the sleepy and the snappy ones get hooked up for life every day. Ninety-nine out of a hundred of them would run a bad last in a beauty contest.

"I am not hard to look at, Kelly, but it would make no difference if I was. Few men have studied art, and few know the shape of these women who posed for the old masters to sculpt. This Venus woman was a bear when it comes to arranging her hair, but she was too big to pet, and, Kelly men certainly do like to pet 'em."

RED CROSS

Patriotic Duty to Help All Our Soldier Boys at This Time.

The seventh annual Roll Call for Pickaway county chapter, American Red Cross is on thruout the city and county and this is your opportunity to stand by those who stood by you when the United States entered the great conflict.

After the war only three counties in Ohio permitted their Red Cross chapter to lapse and Pickaway was one. The other two are very small counties. The loss of a chapter was deeply felt by the soldier, seeking compensation, hospitalization or vocational training until Washington sent a representative here.

It is our patriotic duty to revive this chapter and into this movement breathe the spirit of penitent acknowledgment and high resolve to aid those who gave their all in those stirring days.

Pickaway county had 800 men in Uncle Sam's army, navy and marines. Of this number thirty-three are on the honor Gold Star roll. This includes one nurse. Many have died since of wounds received in battle or of disease incurred in the hardships of camps or on battlefields. It is possible that we can forget so soon. No. No. When the solicitor calls let each one answer, HERE.

All the work thruout the county is volunteer and it is hoped that this campaign will sustain the reputation of old Pickaway in its unselfish devotion in war times.

The First Ward, East precinct, thru its chairman, E. K. Ebert, has already reported and "gone over the top with colors flying." If the other wards do as well the loyalty of the city will be told in unstinted praise.

In Memoriam.

Editor Union-Herald:—John Charles Coon, son of George Coon and Sarah Ann Wilson was born at St. Paul, Madison township, Pickaway county, Ohio, October 18, 1836, and departed this life in Groveport November 11, 1923, aged 87 years and 23 days.

He was the fifth child of a family of nine children. The one grandfather George Coon, came from Virginia, the other, Daniel Wilson, came from Delaware, both settling in Madison township, Pickaway county, in 1806. The deceased received a thoro common school education in the public schools at St. Paul, Ohio.

He removed to Groveport January 26, 1888 to enter into the general mercantile business which was pursued successfully at one location for almost 34 years.

Mr. Coon was supported by his fellow citizens for many positions of public trust, his serving them as committeeman, delegate to county, congressional and state conventions, councilman, member of the board of education, deputy state supervisor and inspector of elections, and postmaster, the latter three different times for a total period of 19 years, a record of which he was always proud. But rightly so, as with all the public offices they were a public trust, to which he applied all his energies as tho they were his private affairs which were administered with business ability and strictest economy. In this connection it is worthy of note that largely thru Mr. Coon's efforts the system of rural postal delivery was introduced into this section which has worked most satisfactorily and to the benefit of the people.

He was united in marriage December 20, 1882 with Maggie L. Kelly whose sudden demise occurred March 27, 1893. To this union were born five children, three of whom survive, Charles of Groveport; Mabel Florence wife of Charles Brady of Marion; and Anna Louise, wife of Frank Ury of Canton.

On December 6, 1899, he was married to Sidna J. Beckett, who as a loving wife comforted him thruout the over two and one-half years illness with which he was stricken.

Mr. Coon was a member of the Independent order of Odd Fellows for over 33 years.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at the Groveport M. E. church with Rev. A. E. Noethlich, the pastor officiating. Burial in Reber Hill cemetery.

Black Velvet Is Used for Afternoon Frock

This winsome black velvet afternoon frock is banded in skunk and is trimmed with brilliant orange velvet. The dressy lace hat completes the outfit.

Interesting Notes of Importance to Women

The suppleness of this season's soft velvets makes them particularly graceful for evening cloaks. Invariably topped by a wide fur collar, these cloaks permit the velvet to be gathered up into soft ruffles tier on tier.

One young London beauty startled society by appearing at a ball recently with a cameo pin fastened around one ankle by a black velvet ribbon. Such use of a cameo on the wrist is not uncommon but whether the ankle ornament will be widely adopted remains to be seen.

The choker necklace is now accompanied by the choker bracelet and the two may be had in a set with earrings to match. The choker bracelet is merely a tight bracelet of big glass beads, matching the necklace.

Narrow metallic ribbon, in silver, gold or bronze, is run into some of the more elaborate satin lingerie. Occasionally the upper part of such lingerie has a yoke of brocade material, the rest of the garment being of plain georgette.

As it is today, if you want a normal waistline you may have it; if not, your waistline may continue as low as you wish. As for the length of skirts they are theoretically longer but actually shorter if anything.

Who said the day of the coat frock was over? Today the coat frock is more in favor than ever. Many of the street dresses in woolen and serge materials are smartly tailored in coat effect.

Half the dresses one sees today are made up of lace and the other half of the dresses one sees are trimmed with flowing lace panels, flounces, or sleeve ruffles. Bits of bright embroidery are appearing as supplements to the lace trimmings.

Cloth Bag Container for Your Vegetables

A convenient kitchen appurtenance is the cloth bag that will hold a head of lettuce to be put into the ice box, or a bunch of radishes or perhaps a longer container for the celery stalks. Soft muslin is best for these, and several sets are none too many, for they should be laundered and kept sweet and clean. Make them wide enough and long enough so that whatever is put in them will not be crushed when the draw string is pulled up.

They should have a draw string, of course. Make the bags of different lengths and widths, so that all kinds of vegetables may be put into them and laid on the ice. Stitch them across the ends and up the sides. Turn a wide hem, stitch twice with a half-inch space between, run in a neat draw string, and they are ready for use. Once these bags are used, the housewife will never again be without them.

From cretonnes, calicoes, percales and other left-overs, pot-holders can be made, and there can never be too many of these in the kitchen. A good size for these is eight inches square. They can be hung by a brass ring sewn in the corner, or by a loop made from the material.

Attractive Blouses.

The newest blouses of printed crepe, showing fresh light colors, are to be had both in hip bands and jacquette models, the former finished with Peter Pan collars and cuffs of white organdy with knife-plaited edgings. Cross-over blouses made of Deauville handkerchiefs show wide faggot stitched hems of plain georgette of the same color as the suit with which they are worn. White Shetland wool sweater blouses of jumper shape, worked all over with bright colored silk cross stitch designs, are worn with white coats and skirts.

HOPE TO SOLVE RIDDLE OF LOST TRIBES IN CHINA

National Geographic Society Expedition to Invade Kweichow, Remote Province.

An expedition into the interior of China to solve the riddle of the lost tribes of that country, from which the American Indian and other present-day peoples may have sprung, is being arranged by the National Geographic society at Washington.

It was announced recently that the party of ethnologists will go to Kweichow, one of the most remote provinces of China, where lives a race distinct from the modern Chinese, clinging tenaciously to the queer customs of bygone ages.

Selecting the least fertile, least accessible and most backward part of the country as their home, these people have shut themselves off from the rest of the world and heretofore denied students the privilege of residence.

The scope of the contribution the National Geographic society's research will make to science cannot be determined, but scientists say that it may make Kweichow a vista of hitherto unrecorded history. One of the few visitors among the strange tribes said that there are types resembling the Gurkha, the South Sea Islander, the American Indian, the East Indian and the negro.

Ethnologists at the National museum say the expedition undoubtedly will open up to science an entirely new chapter in the history of human life. The little that is known of the tribes, they say, strongly indicates that they were founders of the red race and that types of the American Indian may still be found. Stranger still, evidences of pure white tribes have been discovered by the few travelers who barely penetrated the borders of Kweichow.

Close by Turkestan, where primitive man is supposed to have first learned to domesticate animals, it has been suggested that Kweichow may be the long-sought cradle of civilization, the plain upon which human life was first evolved. Between two and three million members of the non-Chinese tribes survive there, and the opportunity for study among them has not yet been lost. Their slow absorption by the modern Chinese, however, has been going on since 2356 B. C.

SCHOOLGIRL WINNER OF SAFETY ESSAY CONTEST

Theodora Poole, thirteen-year-old schoolgirl at Lansing, Mich., wins the distinction of having triumphed over more than 400,000 pupils in the second national safety essay contest conducted by the highway education board, Washington, D. C. As a reward she received a gold watch and a visit to Washington with all expenses paid, gift of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce. Her essay, "My Share in Making the Highway Safe," was written while a student in Pontiac (Mich.) schools. She is a nature enthusiast and her recreation is "helping mother keep house, and having a good time with mother, father and little sister and the car." The board announces a renewal of the contest for this year.

YOUTHFUL BANDITS

Hold Up Proprietors of Hotel at Grove City and Escape With $200.

The hotel operated by Ketterer & Enders at Grove City was held up by three youths at 11 o'clock Wednesday night. Mr. Ketterer was robbed of $200. The three youths none of whom were more than twenty years of age entered the hotel and ordered Mr. Ketterer, Kinzel Hill, Lawrence Miller and Tom Reed, who were sitting in the lobby to put up their hands. Ketterer, however, ran across the street. One of the holdup men followed and there robbed him of $200. Nothing was taken from the others.

The holdups obtained a revolver from the hotel safe, and made their escape in a flivver. They started towards Columbus on the Harrisburg pike.

WHERE THE RAINBOW TOUCHES THE GROUND

THE family cat died. The farmer who owned the cat, in digging the grave discovered a substance which proved to be marl. This farmer had been hauling limestone a long distance for his alfalfa fields. In conference with his county agent, he discovered that marl would take the place of lime in correcting the acidity of his soil. This experience led him to the use of marl that existed on his own farm and saved him much time and considerable expense in hauling.

Similar opportunities have existed and still exist. Many farmers in the middle west will recall what a pest sweet clover used to be. Now this pest is being used profitably as hay and pasture for livestock and as a crop to be plowed under for increasing the fertility of the soil.

Kansas is called the "Sunflower State" and those who have lived there will remember how they have fought this weed. Today sunflowers are being grown as a crop, as feed for chickens and it is also being utilized with or without corn as a suitable crop for the silo.

It is surprising to discover how many things which were frowned upon in days gone by are now serving a useful purpose. These changes have been brought about by observation and study. Brains count on the farm as elsewhere. The man who thinks while he is performing physical work is not only opening up the way for larger profits but he is removing the word drudgery from his vocabulary and is transforming what used to be a drudgery into a profitable pleasure.

—The Banker-Farmer.

BANKERS HELP THE KIDS

Northern Michigan Bankers are out to give the youngsters in their part of the country a lift on the road to better dairying. A group of bankers met with some of the agricultural men in their section and pledged their support in backing up calf club work.

Her Very Own Pig—A Boys and Girls Club Member

Virginia, Minnesota, Bankers have faith in "kids." Meeting with a committee from the Virginia Chamber of Commerce they formulated plans for the establishment of Calf Clubs and "Pure Bred Bull Associations." Banks all over St. Louis county have pledged their support to this work.

An Arkansas bank loaned a youngster $70, in 1920. The boy bought a purebred Poland China gilt from a breeder in a neighboring state. Being the first purebred gilt brought into the county for boys and girls club work, she has furnished more stock than any other sow in the section. With the fact that the bank gave the youngster he has been able to refute the claim that hog raising in his county was not profitable, for at the present time he has more than $1000 to his credit as a result of the original bank loan and investment.

REMARKABLE SAVINGS FIGURES

Remarkable progress in the savings habit in the United States is shown in figures presented to the recent convention of the American Bankers Association by Samuel H. Beach, president of its Savings Bank Division.

In 1921, Mr. Beach showed, twenty-six million people had savings accounts aggregating $16,618,595,000. In 1922, there was an increase of over four per cent, bringing the aggregate up to $17,300,000,000. Similar statistics for 1912 showed that the aggregate was only about half as much as in 1922 or only $8,433,000,000.

Mr. Beach's report on school savings banking showed that practically two million pupils are now participating in school banking systems, an increase of 34 per cent as compared with last year and 58 per cent as compared with 1921, while the total of the actual amount deposited last year was $9,618,000, as compared with $5,775,000 in 1921 and $2,800,000 in 1920, an increase of nearly 340 per cent in three years.

Bees Do Not Sting Skunks.

That skunks will eat bees is the testimony of E. L. Denslow of Conneaut township. He came upon one in the act of moving his hives enough to bring out the bees, and when they came out the skunk ate them. Denslow fired at the animal but missed. Later the skunk came back and repeated the performance, again getting away.

Maryland in History.

The city of Baltimore was founded in 1728, Frederick in 1745 and Georgetown in 1751. Maryland played an honorable part in the Revolutionary war, and in 1783 congress met at Annapolis, where, on December 23, after the conclusion of peace, Washington resigned his commission as commander in chief. In the war of 1812 the state suffered severely. Fort McHenry was bombarded by the English fleet in September, 1814, this battle being the occasion for the writing of "The Star-Spangled Banner" by Francis Scott Key.

Wanted Smell to Materialize.

John had been taken by his mother for a long ride to see an old aunt who was slow in getting the dinner on the table. John was hungry and could smell the dinner. Finally, in order to hurry things a little, he edged up to the aunt and said: "I'll be so glad when I can taste that smell, won't you?"

Largest Pipe Organ.

What is undoubtedly the largest and probably the greatest pipe organ ever made was that which was played in Festival hall in St. Louis, during the exposition in 1904. It was originally made for Convention hall, in Kansas City, but was never accepted. It remained in storage for years and was then bought by John Wanamaker and installed in his Philadelphia store, where it is played every working day. The organ weighs 375,000 pounds.

Accepted Incident as Mandate.

A remarkable case of ring finding is related of St. Atilan, bishop of Zamora, who lived in the tenth century. He wanted to surrender his bishopric and threw his episcopal ring into the Douro. But a fish brought it back to him, and he concluded that he should continue to bear his burden.

The Zenith of Stove Perfection

The only jointless leg bottom and base with full radiation and large ash pan that is on the market! or has ever been made in the history of the stove industry.

The jointless leg bottom and base makes the stove air-tight below the grate, which is the only true fire keeping principle.

It will be as good a fire keeper twenty years hence as it is today.

The Hot Blast Air-Tight Florence will heat twice the space that can be heated by any other stove on earth at one-half the cost.

The only perfect floor heater that is or has ever been made.

All features are patented and no stove manufacturer, dealer or user can copy or use same until the expiration of the patent without incurring liability for an action for damages.

THE HOT BLAST AIR-TIGHT FLORENCE burns soft coal or slack and all the smoke and gases. No filling up of the stove, pipe or flue with soot. No dirt inside or outside the house. It will burn hard coal and all the gases which escape from the hard coal base burner. It will burn wood and sawdust, wet or dry. It will produce one-half less ashes than any other stove on earth with any kind of fuel and leave no clinkers or half consumed fuel.

HARTMAN THEATER

"The World's greatest show; Bigger and Brighter than ever," was a slogan adopted and made famous by America's greatest tent showman. It is one that can be truthfully and justly taken over by Wagenhals & Kemper for their production of "The Bat" which they present the week of November 19, at the Hartman theater, Columbus.

"The Bat" has earned the title of the world's greatest show by smashing every known record for a dramatic production on four continents and in seven different countries. It has been played with equal success in eleven languages and has delighted one president, two kings and five queens, along with plenty of other royalty mixed in with 9,000,000 persons who have seen this Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood masterpiece to date, with no signs of the play's popularity diminishing. It is "bigger" than ever because since it played over two years in New York, a year each in London and Chicago and a season each in Boston and Philadelphia, "The Bat" has shattered over 3,000 other records thruout the United States and Canada. It is "better" than ever for Wagenhals & Kemper are sending a special cast for this engagement. The cast coming to the Hartman is the one that will play New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and Boston later this season for return engagement. It is "brighter" for the simple reason that a brand new production has been provided in view of metropolitan return engagements.

The cast includes five of the members of famous special "Big Cities" company with five other augmentations. The old members are Julia Stuart, Ursula Ellsworth, Charles Gott hold, Robert Ranous, Albert Lawrence Harold Heaton and Ben H. Roberts. This is now the most important organization dispensing the laughs, thrills and sensational mystery now made historic in the theater by "The Bat." One of the most astonishing features of the play's record is the popularity of this hit this present season. It seems to be increasing, rather than diminishing as was anticipated by the producers. In several instances "The Bat" has broken its own previous high records this season on return presentations; and in almost every instance has equalled the high marks set the first and second engagements played in various cities. In view of the productions from theatrical wiseacres that a mystery play could not survive a single year, this is even more amazing. "The Bat" has already piled up more profits and royalty than was ever dreamed of for one play prior to its appearance. And now it seems to have only begun an everlasting career. That its merit as an entertainment is unbounded is indicated by the delight with which it is viewed a second or third time. "Repeat" members of the jammed theaters are the most enthusiastic units of the record audiences.

DUTY OF THE STRONG. — We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.—Rom. 15:1.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

Sunday School Lesson

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 25

CHRISTIANS CALLED TO BE MISSIONARIES

LESSON TEXT—John 17:18; Matt. 28:19-20; Acts 1:8.

GOLDEN TEXT—"Go ye therefore and teach all nations."—Matt. 28:19.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Telling Everyone About Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Our Marching Orders.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Working Together With Christ.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—World-Wide Witnessing for Christ.

I. Sent by Christ (John 17:18).

Christ was sent into the world to save it. Just as He was sent, so He sends us. Just as He was obedient to the Father's command, so we should be to His command. That this might be possible Christ set apart himself, and that the disciples might be fit for this work they are to be sanctified through the truth of God's Word. That which fits the one called to represent Christ is the knowledge of God's holy Word.

II. The Great Commission (Matt. 28:19-20).

At an appointed meeting place in Galilee on a mountain side, Jesus appeared before the disciples and gave this great commission.

1. His Claim of Authority (v. 18). He does not claim to be merely the King of the Jews, but King of Kings and Lord of Lords. He stands clothed with the authority and power of the universe. Before there will be any great concern about evangelizing the world there must be an understanding of the power and might of Jesus Christ as Lord. The Lord must and shall be obeyed.

2. The Obligation Imposed (vv. 19, 20). They are to make disciples of all nations. The obligation of the Christian is not merely to preach the gospel to the Jews, but to all the nations. Those who accept Christ as Savior and Lord are to be baptized in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. By this means they openly acknowledge their allegiance to Jesus Christ as their divine Lord. To secure public avowal of loyalty to Christ is important. It strengthens the character of the confessor. They are also to be instructed to render obedience to all the commandments and requirements of the divine Lord.

3. The Divine Presence Promised (v. 20). To assure the disciples of the success of their undertaking, Jesus guarantees His presence at all times and under all circumstances. That which gives courage and encouragement to the missionary today is the assurance of the unfailing promise of the Lord Jesus Christ.

III. The Missionary Program (Acts 1:8).

It is essential that the missionary program be understood. The work incumbent upon the church is to witness of Christ's gracious salvation to all the nations. After this is done there will follow the preaching of the gospel of the kingdom by converted Israelites. This was not clear to the disciples, therefore they put the question, "Wilt thou at this time restore the kingdom of Israel?" They were right in thinking that the kingdom will be restored. The Davidic kingdom shall be established, but not till after the gospel of the grace of God is preached and the body of Christ is completed. Its realization is certain, but the time is unknown. Times and seasons are in the hands of God. The program which the disciples are to carry out in this present time is witnessing for Christ.

1. In Jerusalem (v. 8). This was done by the Twelve immediately following Pentecost.

2. In Judea and Samaria (v. 8). This was done by the disciples after the hands of the persecutors were laid on them. Not only the Twelve but many others took part in this.

3. Unto the Uttermost Parts of the Earth. Beginning with the first foreign missionary enterprise this work has been carried on with varying degrees of success till the present time.

Being Self-Centered.

Nothing is more wearing or a more fruitful source of unhappiness in the long run than to be self-centered. If our thoughts and plans, our hopes and fears, our ideals and ambitions all center in our own personal comfort and happiness, there must come many a day of infinite weariness and self-disgust when life does not seem worth living. Poverty or riches have very little to do with it. You will find just as many well-to-do people as poor, for whom life has lost its spice and enthusiasm. It is not a question of capital, but of character.

No Place Sweeter Than Home.

It is very dangerous for any man to find any spot on this broad globe that is sweeter to him than his home.—H. W. Beecher.

A Mind In Health.

The first sure symptom of a mind in health is rest of heart, and pleasure felt at home.—Young.

God Should Be There.

A cottage, if God be there, will hold as much happiness as might stock a palace.—J. Hamilton.

SMALL TOWN HUMOR AND PHILOSOPHY

By BUCK CAMPBELL

A young man may be sharp and yet not cut much ice.

A crank is the fellow whose hobby does not agree with yours.

You can't get much encouragement in a town where you can't get a dollar.

Many a woman thinks more of improving her complexion than her mind.

Men who pass the hat at church, when they are at home, may pass the buck when they are out among strangers.

"Say, doctor, do you think he could stand another operation?" asked the anxious wife. "O, yes, I have looked up his commercial rating."

An animated discussion with something you don't know anything about with some one who knows less about it than you do is always enjoyable.

Rights Conferred by Freedom. In a free country every man thinks he has a concern in all public matters—that he has a right to form and right to deliver an opinion on them.—Burke.

Unchanged in 200 Years.
The most interest that can be imagined for a town in the Isle of Man is 6 per cent, and that has been the law for more than 200 years.

CITY COUNCIL

City Building to be Remodeled—Much Business Transacted.

The city council met in regular session Wednesday evening, November 21, with President Felix R. Caldwell presiding and all members present.

Mr. Hedges, as chairman of the committee consisting of all the members of council to whom had been referred the ordinance fixing the compensation to be paid the city solicitor, reported by recommending that the salary of the solicitor be fixed as $700 per year. This report was accepted.

A resolution requiring the construction of a fire wall between the property of the city and a proposed garage to be erected by the State of Ohio on their lot in the rear of armory, was referred to a committee consisting of all the members of council with Mr. Jeffries as chairman.

An ordinance amending Section No. 32 of the revised and codified ordinances of the city fixing the salary of the city solicitor was passed under suspension of the rules.

A resolution authorizing the payment of $120 to William McCrady for the balance of his salary while off duty on account of an accident which occurred on June 24, from the city was adopted.

The matter of remodeling the interior of the city building was referred to a committee consisting of all members of council with Mr. Jeffries as chairman.

The committee reported by offering a resolution approving the plans for this improvement and this was adopted.

A resolution accepting, adopting and approving the plans, specifications, profiles and estimates for remodeling and reconstructing some parts of the city building was passed under suspension of the rules.

Mr. Shaner reported that since the highway department had widened the Circleville and Chillicothe pike just below the residence of James I. Smith that the present culvert is not wide enough to use the entire width of the road and this was referred to a committee consisting of all members of council with Mr. Shaner, as chairman.

The matter of buying a road roller was referred to a committee consisting of all members of council with Mr. Jeffries, as chairman.

EXPLORER TO HUNT FOR THE FORKED-TAIL MONKEY

To Enter Lands Where They Never Heard of World War.

Washington.—Kweichow, where the mysterious non-Chinese tribes of China live and where the famed forked-tail monkey is said to dwell, is to be explored by an expedition sent by the National Geographic society.

Frederick R. Wulsin has been designated to proceed to Peking to organize his staff for the trip into the remotest part of China. The province to be explored is about the size of Missouri and has a population of 8,000,000. It is as inaccessible as Tibet. One of the few visitors who has penetrated only the fringe of Kweichow said he saw types resembling the Ghurka, the South Sea Islander, the American Indian, the East Indian and the negro.

About 3,500,000 of the non-Chinese of the province have survived the process of Chinese absorption. Many of the strongholds have never been visited by white men and whole tribes do not know that the World war was fought.

Occasional travelers have reported how some of the tribes thrash grain on the rooftops, as in the Holy Land; how others have great "prayer flags" flying on fortified castles, and how quarrels are settled on horseback with blunderbusses, broadswords and bags of stones as weapons.

The monkey the expedition will seek is the Rhinopithecus Brelichi, of which the only evidence available now is a skin. There has been speculation, the Geographic society says, regarding the possibility of this species being an animal described in a famous passage of Chinese literature, as follows:

"Its nose is turned upward, and the tail, very long and forked at the end; whenever it rains the animal thrusts the forks into its nose. It goes in herds and lives in friendship; when one dies the rest accompany it to burial. Its activity is so great that it runs its head against the trees; its fur is soft and gray and the face black."

China Agrees to Guard Aliens From Bandits

Peking.—China's reply to the second note of the diplomatic corps regarding the Lincheng bandit outrage, delivered to the legations reverses the former uncompromising attitude of the Peking government toward some of the demands. The latest note meets in a large measure the stipulations designed by the powers to provide greater security for foreigners.

The Chinese government has issued a mandate dismissing from office Tien Chung-Yu, under whose jurisdiction the Lincheng bandits operated last May when they held up an express train and kidnapped numerous foreigners.

Girl Saves 17 Persons From Death on Bridge

Ottawa.—The presence of mind of Eunice Parker, girl guide, saved the lives of 17 of her charges who were hiking on a high bridge over the Rydal river at night, when she ordered them to throw themselves flat on the outer ties to escape death beneath an on-rushing Canadian Pacific locomotive. The nineteenth member of the party, however, Mrs. A. Campbell, failed to hear the command. Her body was found among the rocks 40 feet below the bridge.

BARCUS FARM SOLD

Columbus Railway and Light Company is New Owner

The Columbus Railway and Light company which has recently bought about 500 acres of the Barcus farm proposes constructing a railroad from the N. & W. tracks. The point where the proposed road will leave the N. & W. track is just north of Davis station, running west along the line between the farm of C. A. Peters and the farms of Mrs. Criss Rathmell, Mrs. Richard VanMeter and Mrs. Fan nie Blake. Thence thru Paul Peters' farm near his north line. Crossing the Chillicothe pike near where the Crooked bridge spanned the old canal. The right of way deal is on now between the interested parties—Ashville News.
